SIXTEEN YOUNG PEOPLE GRADUATE

Commencement Exercises of the Towanda High School

The annual commencement exercises of the Towanda High school were held in the Keystone Opera House Wednesday evening, June 8. The attendance was very large, the capacity of the theatre being taxed.

The 16 young people who received diplomas Wednesday composed the 27th class, the largest in recent years, and one of the best to ever graduate from the Towanda High school. When a student completes a four year high school course and receives a diploma, it means something in Towanda; it means that they have done hard and constant studying and that their averages have been sufficient to prove beyond a doubt that they are entitled to their diploma. The class that graduated is a fine example of all that stands for modern schools.

The Class.

Following are the names of the members of the graduating class:

Lucy Ellenberger,
Alice Fairchild,
James Felton,
Stephen Felton,
Jean Holcombe,
Rolfe Humphries,
Mildred Kerrick,
George Kingsley.
William Little,
Katherine Lewis,
Alice Meredith,
Edward Overton,
Mary Pierce,
William Rosenfield,
James Smith,
Edna Winter.

A Pretty Setting.

The opera house stage was handsomely set, the class colors, blue and gold predominating in the color scheme. The graduating class, members of the high school faculty, and Dr. Sparks were seated behind a miniature fence woven out of the class colors, with a gate leading to the front of the stage where the speakers stood. The class motto, "Noblesse Oblige," and the class pin were displayed artisically and conspicuously. Altogether it was a very pretty setting.

As is customary in the Towanda High school, but two essays are read at commencement, the salutatory and valedictory. Each member of the class prepares an essay or oration which are presented to the supervising principal.

The Program.

The following program was carried out:

Orchestra—Overture, The Motor Girl, Edwards.
Chorus—Greeting Song, Class 1910.
Invocation, Rev. John S. Stewart, D. D.
Salutatory and Essay—Progress, an Allegory, Jean Holcombe.
Orchestra, Intermezzo—Love's Dream Czibulka.
Vocal Duet, Marguerite and Katherine Lewis.
Recitation, The World Wants Men, Mildred Kerrick.
Address, Dr. E. E. Sparks, President State College.
Orchestra, Two-Step—O-ga-lal-la, Snyder.
Recitation and Valedictory—Selections from Carlyle, Wm. Rosenfield.
Violin Solo, Frederika Schmauck.
Presentation of Diplomas, Benj. Kuykendall, Jr., Secretary Board of Directors.
Chorus—Parting Ode, Class 1910.
Orchestra, Waltz—Boston, Lumbye.

Miss Holcombe's salutatory and essay was very cleverly done, as was the valedictory and recitation by William Rosenfield. These young people spoke distinctly, and so well that it was really a pleasure to hear them.

The address of Dr. E. E. Sparks, president of State College, was a gem. He spoke words of cheer and advice to the members of the class, and his message was of great interest to every one in the opera house. Many in the audience pronounced it the best commencement address that they had ever heard, which is saying a great deal, for Towanda has had some noted and gifted commencement speakers in years gone by.

Other features of the exercises was the music by Walker's orchestra; the greeting song by the class; vocal duet by Misses Marguerite and Katherine Lewis; recitation, "The World Wants Men," by Miss Mildred Kerrick, violin solo by Miss Frederika Schmauch, and the parting ode by the class.

The presenting of diplomas was very nicely done by Benjamin Kuykendall, Jr., secretary of the Board of Education.

As a whole, the commencement exercises last evening were up to the standard, and there was nothing to be desired.

Class Banquet.

Following the exercises, the graduating class, and high school faculty enjoyed a fine banquet at the New Park Hotel. An elegant menu was served, in the dining room made attractive by handsome decorations. Walker's orchestra discoursed sweet music during the dinner hour.

Miss Katherine Lewis was toastmaster, and appropriate remarks were made by members of the class, Dr. Sparks and members of the high school faculty. It was a fitting close for the commencement exercises of the class of 1910.

JOHN E. GRAHAM WILL BE MARSHAL AND ANNOUNCER

Will Have Charge of Outdoor Events During Old Home Days.

At a meeting of the committee of arrangements for the old home day celebration on Tuesday, John E. Graham was chosen grand marshal and official announcer of outdoor events during the three big days. Mr. Graham will wear a uniform, ride a "hoss" and will tell the people along the street what is going to take place and where it takes place. He will also have charge of the fantastic parade, and commencing at once will endeavor to interest Towanda people in this feature.

It is planned to make this fantastic parade one of the big outdoor events of the celebration, and the greatest pageant that was ever exhibited in Northern Pennsylvania. Nice cash prizes will be given for the handsomest floats, and also for the funniest get-ups in the parade.

There will be music of several kinds in this parade, drum corps, etc., and it will worth coming miles to see.

Another meeting of the committee will be held in the office of J. Andrew Wilt on Friday evening of this week, at which time the final arrangements for the celebration will be made.

Reception at Burlington.

(Communicated.)

The most elaborate social event of the season to take place in Burlington was the farewell banquet given in honor of E. Emerson Morley, in Morley Bros. barn on Saturday. Before the time set for the banquet the guests had all assembled in one of the driveways which had been transformed into a prettily decorated and well equipped reception room. At one o'clock the guests were escorted to the elegant and spacious basement which formed a magnificent dining hall. The decorations consisted of banks of evergreen, with flags, bunting and bowers of flowers in the foreground. The following menu was served: Saratoga flakes, salted nuts, roast chicken, mashed potatoes, olives, french peas, brown bread, biscuits, jelly, fruit salad, a la mayonnaise, wafers, ice cream, assorted cakes, cafe noir. The following young ladies acted as waitresses: Misses Louise Felton, Lucy Litzelman, Sarah Ross, Mary Morgan, Gladys Cranmer and Ellen Morley. Job C. Morley, acting as toastmaster, introduced the following speakers who responded with well chosen and appropriate remarks: Rev. W. P. Miller, Dr. E. N. Shepard, Rev. B. K. Kellogg, Oscar F. Ayre, Miss Neva F. Walter, Mrs. Chas. Kenyon, W. P. Lane, J. Herbert Campbell, John A. Morley, Rev Elmer J. Yerdon, and E. E. Morley. Miss Geraldine Roe gave a reading and responded to a hearty encore. Those present from a distance were: Mrs. Gertrude Morley, Mrs. Roe and daughter Geraldine and Mildred Brinl of Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Felton, Miss Louise Felton, Stephen Felton of Towanda, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Ayre of Ulster, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Litzelman and daughter Lucy and sons Geo and Carl of Sayre, Dr. and Mrs. Chas Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cranmer of Monroeton, and Miss Neva F. Walter and Miss Memory of West Pittston. Mr. Morley leaves for Grove City College on June 20. All departed wishing him success in his college career and feeling that this was an event long to be remembered.

Jaw Bone Broken.

William Emmerson, night foreman at the Toga Mill & Elevator company plant at Waverly, was terribly injured at 11 o'clock Monday night, while at work about one of the machines. He attempted to throw on the belt driving one of the main shafts by the aid of a long bar of iron. The bar caught in the pulley and was whirled around, striking Mr. Emmerson a terrific blow on the left side of the face, breaking the jaw bone and crushing in the whole left side of his face. The injured man was attended by Dr. J. T. Tucker and later removed to the People's hospital at Sayre. His condition is serious. Emmerson is about 35 years of age.

Editor Passes Away.

A. Harvey Shimp, editor of the Hughesville Mail for many years, and one of the best known newspaper men in that section, died Monday morning at 1 o'clock of a complication of heart trouble and indigestion. Mr. Shimp had been in ill health for several weeks, but was not thought to be in a serious condition. Deceased is survived by his wife. He was at one time employed as a printer at Grit in Williamsport. He took charge of the Mail about fifteen years ago, and edited that paper creditably ever since.

Soldiers and Sailors Reunion.

The Junior League of Luthers Mills will repeat the patriotic services which they gave on Memorial Day at the Soldiers and Sailors reunion to be held at Mountain Lake on Friday, June 17. There will be good speakers present and as Mountain Lake is an ideal place, there will be a large crowd present.

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETING TUESDAY AFTERNOON ATTRACTED MANY REPUBLICANS.

REGULAR OLD-TIME POLITICAL GATHERING

State Treasurer Wright, Congressman Pratt, and Senator Shields Present.

TAFT'S ADMINISTRATION FULLY ENDORSED.

Speeches by Congressman Pratt, Treasurer Wright, Assemblyman Mills, Senator Shields, J. H. Brown and Postmaster Leahy Were Features of the Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Republican County Committee in Towanda Tuesday proved to be an old time Republican gathering, love feast and talkfest combined. The attendance was the largest of any political convention held in Towanda in many years. In fact, it is doubtful if a larger or more representative gathering of Republican party workers ever assembled in Towanda.

For some time past there has been sort of a split in the ranks in Bradford county. While the number to forsake the Republican party has been small,

CONGRESSMAN C. C. PRATT.

He is a Republican from top to bottom, internally and externally, every day in the week including nights and Sundays. His well chosen words and emphatic manner greatly impressed the Republicans assembled in convention in Towanda yesterday afternoon.

yet there has been a woeful and deep-felt lack of interest in the affairs of the county organization. But Tuesday's turnout would indicate that bygones are bygones, and that the party has been reunited, and that the organization which was all-powerful in days gone by has regained its former concrete form, and will again play the part which for the past few years has been left to individual members of the party.

Tuesday's meeting, besides being the opening of the campaign which will end when the polls close on the evening of November 8, 1910, was the occasion for the visit to Towanda of three distinguished citizens from other counties, Congressman Pratt of New Milford, Susquehanna county, State Treasurer Wright of Susquehanna, and State Senator Moses Shields of Nicholson, Wyoming county.

Organization Effected.

The meeting was held in the main court room, and an organization was effected by the election of the following officers who will serve during the next year:

County Chairman—Harry N. White of Towanda.

Secretary—S. Bergen Park of Towanda.

Treasurer—Robert Myer of Towanda.

Resolutions Adopted.

The following resolutions presented by J. Roy Lilley, Esq., were unanimously adopted:

Resolved:—That the Republican County Committee for the County of Bradford at its annual meeting, hereby gives expression to its firm belief in the wisdom of the policies of the Republican party.

We endorse the administration of William H. Taft and commend him for the earnest effort he is making in behalf of the people to compel the railroads and other great corporations to obey the law, and cease illegal discriminations.

We endorse the action of our Senators and Representative in Congress. Especially do we commend their efforts in support of the protective policy whereby the wage earner receives greater remuneration for his services, and the producer finds a steady market for his products.

We endorse the administration of Governor Stuart, and we call the attention of the voters in all parties to the fact that every pledge contained in the platform upon which he was nominated four years ago, and every promise he made to the people of the State has been faithfully kept. His faithful discharge of duty not only redounds to his credit but to the credit of the Republican Party and should win votes for our candidates in the coming election from men of all parties.

We commend his action in appointing Hon. C. F. Wright State Treasurer, and we certify to the voters of the State that in integrity and business capacity Mr. Wright stands in the front rank, among able, efficient and deserving citizens, and that his Republicanism has never been questioned. We pledge him our hearty support for nomination in the Republican convention to be held in Harrisburg on June 22, and confidently predict his nomination and election.

We endorse the nomination of Hon. C. C. Pratt for Congress. The able and efficient services rendered the soldiers and sailors of this district by him in securing the passage of a greater number of private Pension Bills for their relief than ever before secured during the same period of service, his earnest efforts for the advancement of the agicultural interests of this county as shown by securing a soil survey by the Government of the farms of Bradford County, and his careful attention to the business interests of all his constituents, irrespective of party affiliation, is exceedingly gratifying to all patriotic citizens and entitles him to their support.

We commend our State Senator, Hon. Moses Shields, for his earnest efforts in behalf of the Legislation tending to benefit the agricultural, mining and manufacturing interests of the State. Particularly do we commend him for his loyal support of the policies of Governor Stuart in carrying out the Party pledges.

We endorse the nomination of Hon. C. E. Mills and William J. McCabe for members of the Legislature, and pledge them our hearty support.

We congratulate all the people of the country upon the early return to our shores of that splendid Republican patriot and best loved citizen of America, the most distinguished and widely known man in all the world, Theodore Roosevelt, and we believe that under his wise leadership, the party will present a solid front to the enemy and win another sweeping victory in November.

Congressman Pratt Speaks.

Hon. M. E. Lilley introduced Congressman Pratt, who was called to the floor, and made a very nice address. Republicanism was his theme, and he expounded the doctrine of "standtogether" in no uncertain language. Congressman Pratt is no orator, but he is a pleasant talker, and his emphatic manner never fails to impress his hearers. He was warm in his praises of Towanda and Bradford county, and expressed many thanks for the courtesies extended, and the loyal support which has been given him at the polls.

Treasurer Wright.

Hon. C. F. Wright, former member of Congress from this district, and who was recently appointed State Treasurer by Governor Stuart, was called upon, and made appropriate remarks. He recalled the time when his brother was congressman from this district, and voiced appreciation for the many favors which had been bestowed upon both he and his brother by the people of Bradford county. His remarks were impromptu, but none the less interesting. He announced that he was a receptive candidate for the office of State Treasurer at the Convention at Harrisburg, on June 22.

Mr. Mills Stirs 'Em Up.

Hon. C. E. Mills of Athens, junior member of the legislature during the last session, and candidate for re-election on both the Republican and Democratic tickets, made one of his characteristic addresses. Mr. Mills is noted as the "rapid fire orator of Athens and he sustained his reputation, and added to his laureis as a public speaker. Like Congressman Pratt and Treasurer Wright he was frequently interrupted by hearty applause. His gattling gun style, and flow of well chosen words took the assemblage by storm, as it were, and when he had finished many wanted to cry out for more.

During his address Assemblyman Mills promised to use his best efforts toward legislation which will equalize taxation, and he promised his "undying support to every measure intended to help and lessen the burdens of the people of Bradford county and the State in general."

Other Speakers.

Impromptu, but appropriate and interesting remarks were made by J. H. Brown of Cedar Ledge, Postmaster Leahy of Sayre, and State Senator Shields.

Mr. Shields spoke of the work of the House and Senate, and said that people should not expect too much from the lawmakers, as one, two or three men could not sway or lead the entire legislative body into one channel of thought or action.

The meeting adjourned following Senator Shields address.

Ward House a Lively Place.

As in times gone by, the Ward House was made a political headquarters and during the middle of the day it was thronged with politicians, both olossomed and budding.

TOWANDA REPUBLICAN CLUB HELD MEETING IN THE EVENING

Officers Elected—Sandwiches and Speeches.

As a fitting climax for "Republican Day" in the City of Promise, the Towanda Republican Club held a rousing meeting in the grand jury room of the court house Tues. night. The attendance was very large. About 50 new names were added to the membership list.

It being the annual meeting of the Club election of officers was held, resulting as follows:

President—Benjamin Kuykendall, Jr.
Secretary—L. J. Russell.
Treasurer—A. C. Blackwell.

Following the election of officers, President Kuykendall took the chair and called upon various members of the organization, each one responding with brief, but appropriate remarks.

Coffee and sandwitches were served, and the evening was one of many pleasures.

S. A. CHAFFEE OF BLACK CHALLENGES OLD RUNNERS.

"Nigh Onto Seventy," But Willing to Sprint a Half Mile.

S. A. Chaffee of Black, "nigh onto 70" years of age, but still hale and hearty is willing to run a half mile foot race against any man in Bradford county anywhere near his age, race to take place in Towanda on Saturday the last old home day. Mr. Chaffee is almost willing to enter the races in which young men will compete, but thinks that a race with men nearer his own age would be more interesting.

Mr. Chaffee's challenge should bring a reply from Mr. Robinson, the old time sprinter at Stevenson, "Uncle Davy" Horton of Hornbrook, or any other man in the "three score and ten" class.

Entries Coming In.

Entries are coming in for the mile and two mile running races to be held on the second old home day, June 25. Carl B. Hooker of Troy, a student at Bucknell, and Albert Heath of Wysox R. D. No. 11, have entered both the mile and two mile events and Charles Crandell of Towanda, has entered the two, one and half mile events.

Entries for the athletic events close on June 23 at 6 o'clock, p. m. Send in names at once.

Found More Than He Expected.

Harry Raub the playwright and novelist who sought color and characters for his work in Liberty, Tioga county found more, a wife, in the person of Miss Florence, daughter of Mrs. W. W Seaman, with whom he last week eloped. They were married in Williamsport by a very prosaic alderman.

Troy Township Teachers.

Teachers were chosen Monday for the Troy township schools as follows: East Troy graded school, Ezra Calkins, principal, Margaret Smith, fifth and sixth grades; Grace Calkins, third and fourth grades; Clara Parsons, first and second grades; Thomas school, Helen Manley; Spalding school, Jeanette Smith; Pierce school, Anna Loomis; Case school, Mae Shannon; Hunt school, Mary Stanton.

HOLCOMBE'S STORE DAMAGED BY FIRE.

Bad Blaze in China Store Basement Saturday Afternoon.

Holcomb's China Store at the North west corner of Main and Pine Streets was considerably damaged by a fire in the basement about 3:30 Saturday afternoon. The prompt and effective work of the fire department prevented the blaze from spreading to the main store room.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been due to a lighted match, cigar or cigarette stump dropping through the grating and sliding down an elevated sheeting into the basement.

There were a number of customers in the store at the time, and the first intimation any one had, was when clouds of black smoke began to roll up through the grating in front and the back stairway leading to the main store room. The firemen had streams playing in the basement in a brief space of time, and the building was never in great danger.

The smoke poured in columns, completely filling the building, making the officers of Rodney A. Mercur and J. A. Wilt, the Wells music store, and the Masonic lodge rooms untenable for a time.

The damage to the Holcomb store is by fire, smoke and water, considerable. The loss is covered by insurance. The store will be closed until after the insurance adjusters have finished their work.

The fire occurred during the dedication of the public drinking fountain, and created great excitment, a large crowd collecting in the streets.

False Alarm.

A few minutes after the fire in Holcombe's store had been extinguished a second alarm was sounded, and the firemen were again on the run. The companies dashed up the hill to Second street, and after a short run learned that it was a false alarm.

There is great rivalry in the Towanda department, which by the way adds to its efficiency, and when the members of one company saw one of the other companies going through an alleyway with their fire-fighting apparatus it was supposed that they were responding to a still alarm, and so the fire bell was sounded that the other companies might "get in the game." It proved a case of going for repairs instead of going to a fire, and the vigilant and dashing laddies had a hard run for nothing. This again illustrates the need of a fire alarm system in Towanda borough.

Will Study in Europe.

David Pratt has gone to New York where he will act as best man at the wedding of one of his Cornell University friends. On the twenty-third of this month he will sail for Europe where he will spend the Summer. Mr. Pratt will spend the greater part of the time studying in Germany.

A Woman's Great Idea

is how to make herself attractive. But without health it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimple, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health beauty and friends. They regpurify the blood; give strong nerves, ulate the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c at Dr. H. C. Porter & Son's.

Rev. Stephen Dana.

Rev. Stephen Dana, one of the best known and most prominent Presbyterian ministers in Philadelphia, and well know in Canton and Western Bradford county where he spent his Summers, died at his home in Philadelphia Wednesday morning. The reverend gentleman came to Canton a number of years ago, because impressed with the beautiful country, and established a home at Minnequa, where with his family he spent the Summers. He had been in poor health for some time, suffering with Bright's disease, and arrangements had been made to bring him to Minnequa, the place he longed for. Death came Wednesday a few hours before the start from Philadelphia was to have been made. He will be kindly remembered by many people in Western Bradford county, having made many friends in that section. He often preached in the Presbyterian church at Canton, and the people of that village feel a distinct loss in his death. Deceased was about 65 years of age, and is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons.

Sarah E. Johnson.

Miss Sarah E. Johnson died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Johnson in Athens, at 10:50 o'clock Sunday morning from tuberculosis, from which she had suffered for the last year. She was nineteen years old Funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock, Rev. M. V. Williams officiating; interment in Tioga Point cemetery. Besides her parents she leaves six sisters, Mrs. Edward Distle, Masten; Mrs. Jacob Chilson, Towanda; Mrs. W. H. Anderson, Laquin; Mrs. D. C. Howard, Straights, Jennie and Bessie at home and two brothers Leroy and Leon at home and also a half brother Isaac Newell of Rickets.

Funeral of Mrs. G. S. Smith.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. G. S. Smith were held at the Smith residence corner William and Chestnut streets Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and were very largely attended. Rev. D. D. Campbell, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church conducted the services and preached an excellent sermon, paying high tribute to the life of the deceased. The pallbearers were: George A. Dayton, A. D. Dye, Slathiel Braund, Thomas Meredith, H. L. Holcombe and J. N. Califf. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Martha J. Greening.

Mrs. Martha J. Greening, a highly respected resident of Ulster township, died at her home in Saco Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock, after a week's illness with bronchial pneumonia. She was 77 years of age, and was highly regarded by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband, M. U. Greening, one son, J. C. Greening, at her home and two brothers, T. S. Lundy and M. S. Lundy. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, at her house, and 2 o'clock at the Ulster Presbyterian Church.

Ezra Williams.

The death of Ezra Williams, a prominent farmer, living near East Canton occured on Sunday morning, June 5, after an illness extending over a period of about six months. He had followed the occupation of farming and fruit raising most of his life. He was about seventy-five years old.

Judge Patch.

Ex-county Judge B. L. Patch, one of the best known men in Mt. Carroll and Carroll county died at 3:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, May 25, after having been ill for about six weeks. He was born in Susquehanna county on Sept. 13, 1828, and in his youth learned the printers trade. He was a brother of James E. Patch of New Albany.

Mrs. David Powell.

Mrs. David Powell died Thursday morning at 4:30 o'clock at the Powell home one mile and a half from LeRaysville borough. She was 24 years of age, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burlington of East Herrick, who with her husband, a three days old son, and two brothers survive. Mrs. Powell was a young woman of high character, was greatly beloved by all who knew her. It has been said that "death loves a shining mark," and so it seems in this case. A loving wife, just arriving at the proudest moment in a woman's life—motherhood—being snatched away from all that life held dear, is sad indeed. The family is grief stricken, and a host of friends are bowed in sorrow. It is one of the saddest deaths to occur in Pike township in years. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at the house at 2 o'clock and interment was made in the East Herrick cemetery.

Julia Decker Smith.

Julia D. Smith, widow of the late G. S. Smith, died Thursday morning at the home of her sister in Appleton, Wisconsin. Mrs. Smith had been in poor health for some time, so her death was not unexpected. She was born in New Jersey on January 31, 1834, and moved to Towanda in 1865, where she has since made her home. She went to Wisconsin last Fall on a visit to her sister. Her health failed early in the Winter and the decline since that time has been very gradual until the end came early yesterday morning. Mrs. Smith has always been an active member of the Methodist Episcopal church and will be greatly missed in church circles, as well as by a host of friends. She issurvived by one son, C. Irvine Smith of Columbus, Ohio; two granddaughters, Julia and Ruth Spalding of Towanda; one sister, Mrs. H. D. Smith of Appleton, Wisconsin, and one brother, Elmer Decker of Embarrass, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Daniel Scanlin.

Mrs. Daniel Scanlin, a highly respected resident of New Albany, died Monday morning at 1 o'clock at her home in that village. She was about 60 years of age, and had a host of friends who will regret to learn of her demise. Her husband died a number of years ago, and the following children survive: Thomas Scanlin of Sayre, Daniel and William Scanlin of West Virginia, Nat and Joseph Scanlin at home, Mrs. James Wattle of Mildred, Mrs. Thomas Cullen of New Albany, Anna a sister in a convent at Troy, N. REUNIONS.

Forbes Reunion.

The sixth annual reunion of the descendants of John Christian and Deborali Forbes will be held at Keystone Park, Sayre, on Thursday, June 30th. All relatives invited to attend. George L. Forbes, Sr., president; Ida R. Payne secretary.

Will Decide Saturday.

The case of E. W. Wheeler, E. A. Knapp and J. O. Nichols, road supervisors of Burlington township, charged with neglect to enforce or obey the loose stone law, was argued before 'Squire eMredith yesterday by Attorney Benjamin Kuykendall, Jr., and Attorney McPherson, the latter gentleman appearing for the commonwealth. At the close of the arguments, the 'Squire Meredith yesterday by Attortion and will render a decision on Saturday. The point involved is whether J. O. Nichols alone is responsible, or the three supervisors jointly, they having divided the township into three districts and each supervisor agreeing to look after the roads in his district. Mr. Nichols had charge of the roads complained of.

Not There But Here.

Attorney D. C. DeWitt, the nominator of Democratic candidates for state and national offices, sheduled to second the nomination of W. H. Berry of Chester for governor, was not present when the roll was called at the Democratic State convention at Allentown, nor his voice was not heard in praise of Mr. Berry and the Democratic party simply because Mr. DeWitt is here and not there, meaning Allentown of the second part and the City of Promise of the first part. When approached by a representative of this paper last evening and questioned as to the cause of his failure in living up to the advertisements of the Democratic press committee, Mr. DeWitt said nothing, but drove on, leaving in his wake the simple supposition that he is tired of nominating losers and for this reason is absent from the Democratic gathering.

Lehigh Supervisor W. H. Kane says that he is hiring all the men he can find for Lehigh construction work. He has work enough to keep a very large force busy, and all that one need do is to apply at his office at Upper Towanda. The Lehigh is paying $1.50 per day for this kind of labor.

PUBLIC DRINKING FOUNTAIN DEDICATED

Appropriate and Impressive Exercises Marked Unveiling.

The handsome and destined-to-be useful drinking fountain presented to the people of Towanda and the public in general by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was unveiled and dedicated with appropriate exercises Saturday afternoon.

The fountain is located in the shade of a majestic elm which spreads its sheltering branches at the Southest corner of Main and Court streets. It is of handsome design, sanitary in every respect, and will stand as a monument to the enterprise and self-sacrifice of the W. C. T. U. of Bradford county. The money with which the fountain was purchased was raised by the W. C. T. U., the nucleus of the fund being a bequest by the late Mrs. Catherine Pratt of Towanda.

The Dedication.

There was a large attendance at the unveiling and dedication. The exercises were started near the fountain, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, the main court room was thrown open and the people assembled there and the exercises were repeated.

A large number of children carrying flags, under the direction of Miss Alice Wilson sang "It's Coming" to the air of "Old Black Joe," receiving vigorous applause. This was a very pretty feature. After prayer, the presentation address was made by Mrs. L. T. Adams of East Smithfield, County Vice-President of the W. C. T. U. She spoke very nicely, and her address which is here given in full was one of the features of the exercises:

Mrs. Adams' Address.

Years ago there came to our mothers and sisters, a vision or a country cleansed from the curse of the saloon; of homes freed from the shadows resting upon them, of streets saft and clean for the feet of the children, and man born in the image of his Creator redeemed from a bondage worse than death. The Vision grew, and the spirit of God laid upon the hearts of these women the burden of this great work, and they went out, led by the Spirit, and the little band became a great multitude, and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, with its boro of ribbon white, is today an acknowledged force for righteousness in many lands and especially this committee, who by their earnest effort, their self sacrifice and persistent faith have made this hour possible.

This fountain will stand for years we trust, a perpetual memorial of the love for humanity, for all of God's creatures, possessing the souls of the organized womanhood of this nation, as represented by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Not for self and not for gain do they work, but to make this land, every city, town and hamlet a safe place for your boys and girls and mine; to lessen the tide of woe of want and crime by the removal from our country of its greatest curse, the legalized force for righteousness in many lands, and their Christ-like deeds of self-sacrifice, of love and helpfulness are a blessing to humanity.

This hour is the fruition of a seed thought, a desire born in the heart of one of the women, the President of the first Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Towanda, Mrs. Catherine Pratt. A little sum of money held sacredly by her for years as a nucleus for a drinking fountain was turned over to the treasurer of the new union. The seed-thought blossomed into a definite purpose in the hearts of these women and today the County organization would pay tribute to this union liquor traffic. As the late Bishop Goodsell said at the last General Conference of the Methodist church, "There is no law it will keep; no pledge it will honor; no child it will not taint; no woman it will not befoul, and no man it will not degrade."

We regret that Mrs. Norrish, our beloved County President, could not be with us today, for this work has been close to her heart. We know that she is with us in Spirit, tho' far away in the midst of the World's Convention at Glasgow. In her stead, and in behalf of the County and local Woman's Christian Temperance Union I take great pleasure, most honorable Council and citizens of this "City of Promise" in presenting to you this beautiful Fountain, this cup of cold water given in the name of Christ. May it prove indeed a fountain of blessing standing as it does "beautiful for situation," near the portals of our Temple of Justice, a pure sparkling stream for the refreshing of man and beast.

Brighter waters sparkled never
In that magic well,
Of whose gift of life forever
Ancient legends tell.

May its purity, its beneficence,, and that for which it stands, so influence the minds of every one who enters the Courts of the Temple, that righteousness shall rule, and the time speedily come when no license of the drink that poisons soul and body, shall ever go out from its halls again.

We desire to thank the County Commissioners for giving us this fine location, the Unions who have so generously responded to the call for help, and all who have in any way contributed to the success of this effort.

God speed the day when the vision of those women, shall be realized in the total prohibition of the liquor traffic; and the life giving properties of this fountain, truly typefy the water of Life which shall be for the "healing of the nations."

Acceptance Address.

Charles H. Allen, member of Town Council from the Second ward, on behalf of Council and Towanda Borough accepted the fountain. His address of acceptance was excellent, Mr. Allen, in spite of his 70 years, having lost none of his old time talent as a public speaker. In this connection it might be well to add that Mr. Allen was present and assisted in planting the elm tree which shades the beautiful fountain.

Dedicatory Address.

Hon. A. C. Fanning, president judge of the Bradford county courts, delivered the dedicatory address, and it proved one of the best and most eloquent speeches ever made by this talented and learned gentleman. He paid high tribute to the W. C. T. U., speaking of the organization in eloquent terms. He also took occasion to pay tribute to the Towanda Volunteer Fire Department which was called out and quickly responded to the alarm turned in from Holcombe's china store just as the Judge was about to commence his address.

The dedicatory prayer was given by Mrs. W. W. Dimock of Liberty Corners, and was in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. The closing number was the singing of "America" by the school children, in which the audience joined.

MARRIAGE RECORD

Malsbury—Decter.

Says the Laceyville Messenger: "On Wednesday, June 1, 1910, Allen Russell Malsbury and Miss Beatrice Anna Dexter, were married at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Dunmire, Lionel Dexter acting as groomsman and Miss Grace Calkins of Towanda, as bridesmaid the wedding march being played by Miss Jessie Dunmire. The rooms decorated in pink, presented an attractive appearance, while the presence of the nuptial parties, the immediate family, and the 25 guests, gave the scene an animation, and imparted a sociability, which fittingly completed the happy makeup of the festal occasion. Following the ceremony hearty congratulations were given Mr. and Mrs. Malsbury, this being succeeded by a full-course wedding dinner, well seasoned with chatting and merriment. On the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Malsbury visited Niagara Falls, going thence to Cairo, Michigan, his former home for a short visit. The bride is a charming young lady having been a successful teacher; the groom being foreman in a manufacturing establishment in Bridgeport, Conn., a city in which they will settle. A nice lot of useful presents were given the bride."

DEATH RESULTS IN PECULIAR CASE

Tumorous Growth on Shoulder Ends Life of L. B. Rundell.

Death ended the suffering of Lorenzo Burton Rundell at his home near the Hawes factory in North Towanda township Wednesday morning at 11:30 Death was due to a tumorous growth on the right shoulder, and his case was one of the most remarkable ever to come to the attention of medical men in this section.

About eight years ago the growth started on his right shoulder, and it increased in size until it reached the proportions greater than the largest that it was a great burden. It extended to the bone and was hard and firm, but until a few months ago was not painful. The best of medical attention was secured, but nothing could be done. A short time ago Mr. Rundell was taken before the Bradford County Medical society, and an examination was made by the members, who pronounced it the most remarkable cases of its kind that they ever came in contact with.

The tumor increased in size, and it fairly sapped the life away, until death came as a relief. Had he lived until July 3, he would have been 62 years of age.

Deceased was well known in Towanda and vicinity, having many friends, who while sympathizing with the bereaved family like they will find consolation in the knowledge that his suffering is at an end.

He is survived by his aged parents living in North Towanda township; also his wife and one son, Henry Rundell of Ithaca; one sister, Mrs. William Barnes of Towanda, two brothers W. A. Rundell of North Towanda, and Milton Rundell of Monroeton.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house; interment in Pail Factory cemetery.

SOCIAL

BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT.

Annual Junior and Senior Dance Held Thursday Evening.

One of the most brilliant social events of this season was that of the Junior and Senior dance, which was held in Eagle Hall Thursday night. It was a most delightful affair and continued a long established custom whereby the Juniors and Seniors of the Towanda High school, meet for the last time in a social way.

The hall was prettily decorated, the school colors, orange and black, predominating. A large number of pennants of many different schools and colleges were artistically arranged on the walls, and streamers of orange and black ribbon ran from the chandelier in the center to the four walls. The orchestra was seated behind a miniature fence woven out of the class colors of blue and gold.

At nine o'clock the grand march, led by Miss Ellen Pratt, president of the class of 1911, and James Smith, president of the class of 1910, took place after which a fine program of dances was enjoyed.

The music was furnished by Walker's orchestra. During the intermission light refreshments were served to about 200 guests, after which dancing was resumed and continued for a couple of hours.

Following were the patronesses: Mrs. S. D. Eilenberger, Mrs. G. L. Fairchild, Mrs. C. L. Felton, Mrs. J. H. Humphries, Mrs. H. L. Holcombe, Mrs. G. H. Kerrick, Mrs. A. M. Kingsley, Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Thomas Meredith, Mrs. F. C. Overton, Mrs. E. B. Pierce, Mrs. Frank Rosenfield, Mrs. S. H. Smith, Mrs. G. B. Winter, Mrs. W. H Little and Mrs. J. B. Felton.

AN OLD TIME MEETING.

Not in many years has the county seat had so large and enthusiastic gathering as that which the meeting of the Republican county committee called here Tuesday. It seemed like the old time rally of the long past when from town and township in the county the Republican hosts gathered to dicuss the political issues and prepare for battle. There was not only a full attendance of the members of the county committee but there were also many representative Republicans from every part of the county.

Before and after the meeting of the committee there was a very free interchange of opinion. The political situation was discussed in all its phases and all reports were extremely encouraging. The dominant notes of the convention and of all the conferences were enthusiasm and confidence. The speeches reflected this hopeful and harmonious spirit and throughout the whole days proceedings there was in evidence the indisputable fact tnat the Republicans of Bradford county are today animated with a spirit of harmony and aggressiveness that has not been equaled in many years. They enter the fight with a confidence that means an aggressive campaign and an old time victory.

Colonel Pratt's speech was in excellent taste and gave evidence that he is a clear thinker as well as a good speaker. While his Republicanism is of the stalwart type there were no firebrands in his speech. It was a frank, lucid exposition of Republican doctrine and demonstrated that the Republican candidate for congress has well-defined ideas of his responsibility to his constituents and his obligations to his party. The Republican party have in Colonel Pratt a representative who has an exalted idea of his office, strong convictions on political questions, and a courage that will not falter when the principles and policies of his party are at stake.

The speeches of State Treasurer Wright, Representative Mills and Senator Shields which followed reflected the sentiment that to prevaded the entire assembly. Mr. Wright's gave evidence of the kindly feelings he has for his former constituents—a feeling which they returned just as strongly for him. Representative Mills spoke eloquently of the proud record of the Republican party and pledged himself to faithful service for his costituents. Senator Shields, who has many warm friends in Bradford county, gave a most interesting talk about the work and responsibilities of a member of the legislature who endeavors to faithfully represent his constituents. That Senator Shields has tried to give such service no one who knows his record will question.

By whatever test that may be applied, Tuesday's meeting was a great success, but unquestionably its greatest benefit to the party was the clear demonstration it gave of the harmony that exists in the ranks and among the party leaders. It showed, too, that the party is well organized and is determined to wage a winning fight for the ticket.

There was never a simpler, plainer proposition than that which today confronts the Republican party of this county, namely, the election of the ticket nominated at the recent primaries. The ticket is a good one and it was fairly nominated by decisive majorities. The nominees are capable, clean men and there ought to be no doubt about their election. We believe there is none. But one thing is necessary to make it certain and that is, organization and work. The result is in the hands of the Republican voters of Bradford county. They have the voters necessary to elect the ticket—not by a bare majority of a few hundred but by an overwhelming majority of thousands. They have begun the campaign right by beginning it early. Now for a long pull, a strong pull, a pull all together and a victory so decesive and overwhelming will be won that it will settle for years to come the question of party supremacy in this county and congressional district. Such a victory would bury so deep, the hopes and ambitions of aspiring Democratic leaders, whose only hope for success is through Republican dissensions debauchery of Republican voters, that they would never see a resurrection morn. And such a victory is surely coming, if Tuesday's meeting is any index of Republican sentiment throughout the county. That it may be accepted as such we have no doubt. That gathering, unless all indications are false, reflects the feeling of Republicans everywhere in Bradford county. With united ranks, with high courage, and with confidence the Republican hosts are marching to battle and in November next their old, many times beaten enemy, will go down in overwhelming and irretrievable defeat.

TAFT IN THE WEST.

There are those who have been telling us for some time past that the Taft administration was sadly in need of friends in the West, and that insurgency had so sapped the vitals of Republicanism of the "regular" brand that the downfall of the administration, if not o fthe party, was not far off. But the events of the past two or three weeks do not seem to prove this. The insurgents predicted that the primary elections in Iowa would show great gains for them, and it was expected that Senators Dolliver and Cummings, who made such a point of advising the defeat of all regular Republicans up for nomination at the recent primaries, would win a great victory. They opposed the renomination of Governor Carroll and of Representatives Hull, Smith and Kennedy, and the nomination of Mr. Towner in the eighth district. All are winners except Mr. Hull, whose defeat in the Des Moines district is very decisive. The result would seem to place the Washington administration in control of the State convention and will leave the congressional delegation from Iowa in case of Republican success as three "standpatters" in the House. Thus the first two insurgent senators who opposed the administration and the tariff bill go down to defeat and have merely one victory out of a possible five to point to, and will not be able to write the platform.

At the Republican state convention in Wisconsin the administration of President Taft was strongly endorsed in the platform, and the new tariff law was warmly approved with special commendation for the provisions for maximum and minimum schedules and future scientific revision.

Pennsylvania is the third state in this section of the country to hold state primaries, and in not a single one of them has the insurgent movement triumphed. In West Virginia, enough county primaries have been held to insure the return of Senator Scott, a standpatter, to the Senate, and every regular Republican who was a candidate for congress has been renomiated. In Ohio, just across the line, the results were the same as to members of congress. Only one, Ralph D. Cole, was defeated for renomination, but his opponent is not an insurgent.

The friends of President Taft and his administration have abundant cause for satisfaction in the results of the primary elections so far held. There is every indication that the people "know a knot from a handsaw," and that in the coming campaigns throughout the country, congressional and state, Republican voters will require better reason than has yet been given them for deserting their standards or changing their political faith.

DEMOCRATS FOR PRATT.

The Montrose Republican in commenting on the primary elections in Susquehanna county and of the resulting nomination of Mr. Pratt for congress and of E. E. Jones, known as "Good Roads Jones," for the legislature, said: "Both men are widely popular and the vote of Saturday said plainly, 'We'll be with you and for you next November.' Each of these men, besides being sound and reliable business men, are clean morally, and that qualification appeals more to the masses today, especially when found in the political life, than any other qualification. From a standpoint of morality and square, honest dealing, we believe you could search the county over and not find two better representative citizens.

"The county is proud of them and this fact was shown by the names of both being written on the ballots as the choice of many Democrats. While Congressman Pratt had an opponent in Hon. George W. Kipp of Bradford county, nevertheless many of Mr. Pratt's Democratic friends in Susquehanna voted for him in preference to Kipp.

A WELCOME VISITOR.

One of the pleasant incidents of the Republican meeting last Tuesday was the presence of Ex-Congressman Chas. E. Wright of Susquehanna, Pa., who is now State Treasurer. Many Friends found this an opportunity to extend their kindly greeting to this gentleman who will ever retain a warm place in their affections. Mr. Wright's recent appointment as Treasurer by Governor Stuart well illustrates the high regard in which he is held by the Republican leaders of the party in the state. The apointment was unsolicited, was entirely voluntary on the part of the Governor, and came as a surprise to Mr. Wright. While averse to taking up again public duties the compliment to him was so great and the honor conveyed by the tender of so responsible a position was so clearly inspired by the regard in which he was held by the Governor, that he could hardly refuse to accept. That the honor was worthily bestowed and justly merited no one who knows Mr. Wright will for a moment question.

The Democrats, many of them, have been indulging in the usual boasts of Democratic victory this autumn for Kipp. Kipp won once by a liberal use of money in advertising his campaign, and he has also been defeated. The evidence at present indicate a similar strenuous campaign for votes on his part this year. Republicans should remember that only Republican votes can elect him, and every wile and subterfuge that can be used Republican party will be resorted to. However, from the manner in which Republicans rallied around Pratt's standard at the polls Saturday, even in Bradford county, there is no call for worriment, but it is well to be prepared. Black can be made to appear white, we are told, but no manner of arguments to those who know both candidates can make Mr. Kipp appear the superior in any way of Congressman Pratt.—Montrose Republican.

If the Payne tariff has done nothing else it has yielded revenue enough for the government. The treasury deficit to date is but $11,470,535. Last year to date it was $68, 721,634. Next year revenue should equal expenditure.—Philadelphia Press.

SACRED CONFIRMATION RITES ADMINISTERED.

Impressive Ceremonies in Church of SS. Peter and Paul.

The handsome Church of Saints Peter and Paul, Third street,, was the scene of beautiful and impressive services Sunday morning whei a large number of people received the holy rites of confirmation.

The 7:30 o'clock mass was celebrated Right Rev. M. J. Hoban, Bishop of the Scranton Diocese, assisted by Rev. J. J. Coroner, pastor of the Church of S. S. Peter and Paul, and Rev. Andrew J. Brennan, D. D., Chancellor of the Scranton Diocese. At this mass the following children received their first holy communion:

"Save the child today, and you have saved the nation tomorrow."

"Let us make it as easy child to do right, and as hard as possible for every child to do right, and as hard as possible for it to do wrong."

The American Brewers Review congratulates itself and the trade it represents with loud congratulations over what it alleges to be proof that the liquor business pays the people more than the public cost of taking care of the pauperism, crime and insanity that it causes. The question is one that is hardly worth a very large amount of hair splitting. It is not a matter of much importance upon which side of the ledger the money balance falls. The important point is that the liquor traffic does cause poverty, insanity and crime, and nothing in the way of revenues can recompense the state therefor.

The few cents that labor might lose by the elimination of a few unions of the liquor trades, it would get back a thousand fold in more legitimate ways. The great international labor movement of which we are proud to be humble members depends for intelligent and decent leadership upon men and women who refrain from the use of brain befogging liquor. I have seen so much misery and degradation and ruin of happy homes and families from liquor that if I had the power I would wipe out the whole damnable and devilish traffic at this moment. John Walker of the united mine workers of Illinois.

The estimate given is that the crime which comes out of the door of the saloon costs the Aemrican people every year more than $420,000,000 or $4.34 for every man, woman and child of us.

Judge Butler of Cario, Illinois, said at the close of a murder trial. "The case at bar is the seventy sixth murder case at I have tried, either as states attorney or as judge, during the past nineteen years. I have kept careful record of each one, and I have to say that in seventy five out of the seventy six, liquor was the exciting cause.

The World's Convention is now in session at Glaszow. The cable advices that both the Canada and the Celtic arrived safe. Mrs. S. B. Norrish, our county president and State corresponding secretary, sailed on the Canada from Montreal. She was accompanied that far by her sister, Miss Emma Bush of Athens. The Celtic of the White Star line sailed from New York. There was a large delegation on both ships, representing every state in the union. New York state heads the list with fifteen delegates. Some of them will avail themselves of taking in the Passion play which takes place during their stay.

New Albany will be represented at the dedication of the Drinking Fountain at Towanda Saturday.

The State Prohibition convention meets at Harrisburg, June 23 and 24th. The first evening there is to be a grand Inter-Collegiate Oratorical contest for $50.00 in gold under the auspices of the Prohibition Association of Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Representative orators from the following colleges, Pennsylvania State college, Pennsylvania college,, Swarthmore college, Albright college, Geneva college, Susquehanna university. Juanita college, Rutgers college. Music by Prof. Kingsburys chorus. This is to be one of the greatest Prohibition conventions ever held in the state. Hon. Eugene W. Chafin of Chicago, Ill., candidate for president (1908) will be the principal speaker.

Mrs. John Bull of Sayre who did such good service at the Towanda Conventio a year ago and who is local press superintendent of Sayre, left June 2 for St. Paul, Minnesota where she expects to remain a month. She and her husband are delegates to a convention of B. of L. F. and E. held at that place. She promises to assist in sending W. C. T. U. news to this column when she returns.

The first communication from our county president, Mrs. Norrish, since she crossed the ocean, brings assurance that she is having a delightful trip every step of the way. Many of her companions were sick, but she was on deck, and at her accustomed place at the table three times a day. Those who were not sick participated in religious services, held a matron's contest, and had readings to while away the time. She regrets that the voyage did not last a week longer. She is enjoying the bewildering beauty of Ireland, has attended services in a great cathedral, listened to the chimes of Shandon, visited Blarney Castle, and is gaining many new thoughts and experiences which she will share with her sisters on her return.

Boy Culture.

Many Temperance workers of the past, have copied the Chinese mode of acomplishment. That is, doing things backward. For years valuable time and large sums of money were used in the desperate attempt to reform habitual drunkards, and make conscientious the consciousless legislators. Today, we are wiser; going backward to the beginning of things.

We teach women to so educate their sons, while they are still under mothers' instruction, that there will be no drunkards to reform.

A boy taught to abhor dishonesty and sin will not, when he comes into mans estate, vote for men who are the embodiment of these vices.

I remember hearing Rev. Anna Shaw once remark." The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand which rules the world—so long as the world is in the cradle." Think mothers, what this means!

If you knew the little lad by your side, was to one day sit upon the Judges bench, would you not teach him the beauty of Mercy the dignity of Justice? If the young mother bending above her sleeping babe could see him as he may be—the President, she would fall upon her knees humbled and chastened. Knowing that in her hands she held the future weal or woe of a great nation.

Mothers, do not frown when you see the marks of muddy shoes on your carpets. Remember the saloon keeper is not so careful of his floors.

Take time to cultivate your son's aquaintance. He has undeveloped resources of which you may not dream. Help him to understand himself. When you see him quietly reading do not think that all is well. A deadly viper may be coiled between those pages. Select his reading. In this way you can create a normal appetite for good literature.

Make home attractive. Boys must do something. If you do not give them employment and recreation they will find it elsewhere.

Is the boy entirely to blame. If there is no hand to guide aright, and he becomes confused and looses his way in the tangled paths of the maze of life.

A boy's father is usually his ideal of all a man should be. Fathers, are you the kind of men you wish your boys to become?

The best man I have ever known, once said to me. "It would be impossible for me to be a very bad man. My mother is too good a woman to have a very bad son." That was praise indeed.

To me, there is nothing so vtial as this question. The proper training of the future citizens and rulers of the country. The dispute between capitol and labor, the race problem, the many differences about which we feel anxiety, are secondary considerations.

If the rich man and the poor, the white and the black, the American and Alien were all taught in their childhood to live by the Golden Rule, these grave questions which threaten the peace and well being of the government would cease to exist.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union have two mighty impliments with which to accomplish this work. Their Countless Mother's meetings and helpful literature. Let us all work to bring about the day when these meetings shall be held in every town, and this purifying, uplifting literature shall be read from coast to coast.

Troy Business Change.

Charles Friends of Tioga, Pa., and L. L. Heath, of Olean, N. Y., have brought out the undertaking business formerly conducted by Knapp and Beaman in Troy, and C. J. Bloom and Son in the same village and will continue the business as Friends and Company. Both gentlemen are experienced undertakers. Mr. Beaman, who has had charge of the business since the death of Mr. Knapp, will remain with the new firm.

NOT AN INCH OF HEALTHY SKIN

Left on Whole Body—Boy of Five a Mass of Itching Eruption and His Screams were Heart-Breaking—Bandages Stuck to His Flesh.

CURED BY CUTICURA TWELVE YEARS AGO

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did no good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. Now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day, twelve years or more since the cure was effected. Robert Wattam, 1148 Forty-eighth St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 9, 1909."

Millions of women prefer Cuticura Soap to all other skin soaps for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and nands. For rashes, itchings and chafings, red, rough hands, dry, thin and falling hair, for infantile eruptions and skin blemishes and every purpose of the toilet, bath and nursery, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are invaluable.

Cuticura Soap (25c.), Cuticura Ointment (50c.) and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60). Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., 135 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. Mailed free, 32-page Cuticura Booklet, an Authority on Affections of the Skin, Scalp and Hair.

Schoonover, Mrs. Beatrice White and little son, Mrs. Henry Green, Mrs. John Schultz, Mrs. Horace Johnson, Mrs. Maud Ellis and son of East Towanda, Mrs. Charles Wickwire and children of Wysox, Mrs. S. R. Wickwire and her daughter, Louise and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Horton of Black. Mrs. Dunn received about 40 beautiful postcards.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.s

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

COLD SUMMER PREDICTED.

Prognosticator Prophesies Coolest Summer in Fifty Years.

Andrew House, of Geneseo, N. Y., a weather prophet whose weather predictions are attracting the attention of people in all parts of New York State, because of their accuracy, is out with a forecast for the months of June, July and August.

Mr. House bases his predictions almost entirely on the conditions of the weather during certain changes in the moon. He has made the matter special study for many years past, and the farmers of that section of the country plan their work very large in acordance with his forecasts. He has given out the conditions for June and July:

"The present cold and wet weather will continue for five or six days, following which we will get some reasonably warm weather, which will give the farmers an opportunity to finish up their planting. During the latter part of the month it will turn cold again, and July will be a cold, wet, disagreeable month, with an occasional pleasant day. No floods are predicted, but there will be heavy rainfalls during the month with extremely cold weather for July.

"It is probable that there will be frosts during the month, and it will not be at all surprising if occasional snowflakes are noticed during some of the storms. The farmers who manage to secure their hay in good condition will be obliged to use every effort to do so as rapidly as possible between the storms. This disagreeable condition of the weather will prevail throughout the month of July and may continue well into the forepart of August.

"This Summer, taken as a whole, will be cold and will approach in 1858, which was known as the year without a Summer, there being frosts every month during the year. The nearest approach of real Summer weather will be due the latter part of August, at which time we may get a few weeks of fairly good weather. While there will be some hot weather, it will be short duration, and the summer of 1910 promises to be the coldest summer that has been experienced in over 50 years."

SURFACE CASE ENDED.

Governor Stuart Makes Public Secretary Critchfield's Report.

No further proceedings will be taken against State Zoologist H. A. Surface as a result of the charges filed against him in December by A. E. Satterthwait, his former assistant. He was accused of using state property for his own advantage during experiments on his farm.

Governor Stuart has made public the findings of Secretary of Agriculture Critchfield and remarked that the incident was closed. "Secretary Critchfield," he said, "went over the whole matter and sent me a copy of his findings for my information. The matter stops now."

The findings of Secretary Critchfield concludes, "the testimony shows that in some instances there was a lack of prudent carefulness that should be exercised by a public official in order to 'avoid even appearance of evil.' I do not doubt his integrity of purpose.

Sunday School Convention.

The Ulster-Sheshequin district will hold a Sunday School convention at the M. E. church at Ulster, June 18, starting at 2 p. m. A fine program has been arranged. The following are on the program: Rev. W. H. Sawtelle, Mrs. George H. Watkins, Marion Sawtelle, Mrs. George Forrest, Mrs. A. O. Williams and Miss Robinson, a state worker. The evening address will be given by Miss Robinson at 8 o'clock. The subject will be "Teacher's Training." Entertainment will be furnished to all those who desire it and all are invited and urged to attend.

Father Took Boy Home.

Arthur D. Bunnell, the young man who was held at the county jail to await the action of the next grand jury, on the charge of interferring and meddling with railroad appliances and trains, endangering the lives of the train crew and carrying concealed and deadly weapons, has been released from the county jail, the charge having been withdrawn. He was given into the custody of his father who took him to his home at Niagara Falls. He will be placed in the Father Baker home at Buffalo. Mr. and Mrs. Bunnell parents of the boy are a respected and well liked family of Niagara Falls, Mr. Bunnell being one of the Lehigh Valley's trusted employes.

Train Order "Deliverers."

Train order "deliverers" have been placed at Laceyville to give them a test and if they prove successful they will be installed at all train order offices on the Lehigh system. The "deliverers" are shaped like a fork with two tines. A train order can be tied with a string extending between the tines. When a train is passing the engineman or conductor can lean out and catch the order.

Many Interested in Races.

A large number of young men in Towanda and vicinity are becoming interested in the racing events planned for the second old home day, and it is expected that there will be a large number of entries. The bicycle race is also attracting attention, there being a large number of riders in Towanda and vicinity. Send entries to The Review at once.

Ulster Township School Matters.

A Matter of History.

It cost millions of dollars, and thirty-five years time in work, to prove conclusively that scientifically made paint, is superior to the old method of making paint by hand mixing with a stick in a pot; a few gallons at a time. The L. & M. Paint is scientifically made by machinery with only the finest White Zinc and White Lead made from metal, and purest Linseed Oil. Its use saves costly labor, and the many millions of gallons used throughout the United States proves it. Sold by Spalding Hardware Co., Towanda; Dewey Bros., Gillett.

BACK BROKEN IN FALL DOWN AIR SHAFT

Oratio Bonci of Murraytown Terribly Injured.

Oratio Bonci, a watchman in the Murray coal mines at Murraytown, Sullivan county, sustained a broken back in a fall in an air shaft at the mine Saturday morning.

Bonci was ascending the steps in the air shaft and had reached one of the landings which are ten feet apart, when in some manner he fell, and was terribly injured about the back and shoulders.

He was taken to the Packer hospital Saturday evening, and there it was found that his back had been broken. Last evening word from the hospital was to the effect that his condition was very favorable.

Bonci is naturalized and Americanized Italian. Some years ago he lost an arm in an accident but in spite of this handicap he has been a hard worker, raising a large family. He is held in high regard by his neighbors and all who knew him.

MERCHANTS CAN HELP IN OLD HOME ARRANGEMENTS

Place Relics and Old Time Utensils in Display Windows.

The Bradford County Historical Society calls upon the merchants of Towanda to help make the old home days as attractive as possible for visitors. The old home days will be June 23, 24 and 25, and it is desired to make them three interesting days as well as exciting.

There is hardly a family in Towanda but what has from one to a hundred relics of olden times, things which are not seen in this age. Now what the Historical Society wants the people to do is to loan the relics to the merchants that they may make window displays for the home days.

A few weeks ago the Historical society held a special meeting in Troy, and for several days before the meeting every store window in the half shire town contained relics of "ye olden times." People passed along the street, going from window to window, and seeing many things which were strange and curious to them.

Now this splendid attraction can be equalled or improved upon in Towanda if the people and the merchants will take hold of it. Begin now and arrange the windows for old home days. Take your relics to your grocer, and have him arrange them in his show window. If you have a large number divide them up among several merchants, and by this manner a greater and finer display will be made. This can be made a great feature, and it should be.

PEOPLE'S MUTUAL POLICY HOLDERS WILL BE PAID SOON.

So Says a Dispatch From Syracuse. Basis Undecided.

A Syracuse dispatch says that Frederick G. Dunham, Deputy Superintendent of Insurance, in charge of liquidating the business of the People's Mutual Life Insurance Association and League, is seeking to determine the basis upon which certificate holders will receive dividends.

The members are entitled to what their certificates have earned during the time they were members. The entire assets of the association, after payment of expenses, will be divided among the certificate holders and Mr. Dunham has practically concluded that the most equitable basis of division would be on the amount of the monthly payments of premiums. On this basis the person having paid 30 payments on a $100 certificate would received twice the amount paid to a member who had made but 15 payments on a certificate of the same class.

The first payment of dividends will not be made to those whose claims are in any doubt, but these will be paid just assanootihser sRmahersohtn paid just as soon as their standing is determined.

TOWANDA MUSICAL SOCIETY HAD INTERESTING MEETING.

Delightfully Entertained By Mrs. W. B. McClen on Thursday.

The Towanda Musical Society was delightfully entertained by Mrs. W. B. McClen on Thursday of last week. The following interesting program was given:

Musical Notes, Miss Putnam.

Vocal Solos, (a) "I Knew a Lovely Garden", D. Hardelot.
(b) "You Are Mine", DeKoren; Mrs. McClen.
Piano Solo, Slumber Song, Schumann; Mrs. McCraney.
Contralto Solo, Lifes' Lulla-by, Geraldine Lane; Mrs. Ruggles.
Violin Solo, Movement from Concertino, Seybold; Miss Herrmann, accompanist, Miss Gernant.
Piano Solo, Mazurka in G., Moskowsky; Mrs. Dunham.
Soprano Solos, (a) Rose in the bud, Forster.
(b) Disappointed, Helen Hood; Miss Montanye.
Vocal Solo, In Treeland, Percy Elliot; Mrs. Williams.
Vocal Quartette, The Stars in Heaven, Rheinberger; Mrs. Williams, Miss Lauderbach, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Ruggles.

G. A. R. Officers.

The Pennsylvania G. A. R. at its forty-fourth annual encampment at Harrisburg elected the following officers: Senior vice commander, H. H. Bengough, Pittsburg; junior vice commander, J. W. Kirk, New Cumberland; council of the administration, Lem Buch, Reading; John Dougherty, Philadelphia; William T. Bradbury, Pittsburg; Harry T. Stanwood, Philadelphia, and Theodore F. Turner, West Chester. A resolution condemning the placing of a statue of General Robert E. Lee in the national capitol at Washington was tabled. The assemblage adjourned after selecting Scranton as the place of meeting next year.

SABBATH SCHOOL WORK.

Bradford County Association Plans Vigorous Campaign.

In the endeavor to place Bradford county in the "Front Line" in Sabbath School work a tour of the county has been planned to be made by a State worker, accompanied by some of the county officers.

While Bradford couty needs but a little work in a general way to place her in the "Front Line" in Sabbath School work, yet at the same time there is much needed working, out of little details that is necessary to bring the desired result, "The Front Line." The county is practically organized into working districts and reports coming in of "Cradle Rolls" and "Home Departments" being started, of "Teachers Training" and adult Bible classes being organized. Still there is great need of more of these departments to bring the county up to the required State standard.

The Bradford county Sabbath School association at its last convention adopted the following District Standard:

(1) District Organization; (2) District Convention held yearly; (3) Statistics of each school sent to County Secretary by May 1st; (4) Contribution by each school to County work; (5) Ninety per cent. of schools open all the year; (6) 75 per cent of schools represented at County Conventions having organized Adult Bible Classes (8) 50 per cent. of schools having Cradle Rolls; (9) 30 per cent. of schools having Home Departments; (10) 20 per cent. of schools having Teachers Training Classes.

A Banner District qualifies in five points.

A Star District qualifies in eight points.

If all districts measures up to this standard, Bradford county would come unto her own at the next State convention and it is with the great desire to see the county marshalled in among the "Front Liners" at the forty-sixth annual State convention to be held October 12 to 14, 1910 in Altoona that all Sabbath School workers are urged to note carefully the date and place of meeting in their district and attend thoroughly determined that their school shall be a "Front Line" school, their district a "Front Line" district, their county a "Front Line" county.

Schedule.

Canton, June 13; West Burlington, June 14; Fassett, June 15; Sayre June 16; East Smithfield, June 17; Ulster, June 18; Towanda, June 19; Rome, June 20; New Albany, June 21; Stevensville, June 27; South Hill, June 28; Warren Center, June 29; Windham, June 30.

Money for Elmira College.

President A. C. McKenzie of Elmira College yesterday anounced that Elmira College has come into possession of a sum of $112,000 with which to erect several new buildings and to make many improvements. Of this sum $50,000 came from the late John S. Kennedy, and $30,000 from Andrew Carnegie. The later gift was conditional that the college raise a like amount. Scores of alumnae and friends subscribed for this fund and were sucessful in obtaining the amount needed. Yesterday ground was broken for a new science hall. Elmira College is the oldest college for women in the United Sates.

Mining by Electricity.

An anthracite colliery is being developed near Nanticoke which is unique, in that it will not have a steam boiler or steam engine in it nor anywhere around the premises. The whole plant operation, including the crushing, screening and cleaning of the coal, hoisting the coal, pumping water and driving ventilating fans will be driven by electricity brought from a point about seven miles distant. The Ridgewood Coal company has made a contract with the Luzerne County aGs and Electric company to furnish power for five years.

Well Being Drilled.

Last week C. D. Ace of Trucksville, who drilled the well at the creamery, moved his machine to the lot owned by L. A. Bosworth in LeRaysville and began drilling for a well. It is the intention, if a sufficient quantity of water is found, to construct a system of water works, placing a reservoir on the hill commonly known as Buck's Hill, or on the hill where the present reservoirs are located.—LeRaysville Times.

Help Wanted.

The Seneca Silk mill on Plank Road street is in need of help. Superintendent Matthews desires to increase the capacity of the mill by adding new machinery, and running every loom. To do this he must secure more help, and this he desires to do at once. Girls and young men desiring pleasant employment at good wages, should take advantage of this opportunity at the Seneca plant.

New Variety of Egg.

Says the LeRaysville Times: "Chas. H. Hutchinson has in his tonsorial parlors a new variety of egg. In shape it is similar to a gourd, and he claims it will produce a chicken with an abnormal neck. Charles has christened his yards the Sunny View Poultry yards and expects in a few years to win a reputation second to none."

Teacher's Eye Injured.

Miss Ione Wagner a teacher in the Sayre high school, is suffering from a painful injury to one of her eyes. She was shaking her sweater, and on it there was a seal pin. The pin struck her eye and cut a gash in the outer coating of the optic. The injury was treated by Dr. A. H. Murray of Sayre.

Bishop Hoban Will Confirm Class.

Right Rev. M. J. Hoban, Bishop of the Scranton Diocese, will administer the rites of confirmation to a large class in the Church of SS. Peter and Paul tomorrow, Sunday. The confirmation takes place immediately following late mass which begins at 10:30 a. m. There are about 150 in the class to be confirmed.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will brace up the nerves, banish sick headache, prevent despondency and invigorate the whole system. Sold by E. P. Kester, Pharmacist.

GREAT PROGRAM OF ATHLETIC EVENTS

There Surely Will Be Some Doings On Old Home Days.

There will surely be some great doings in this glad City of Promise on the three old home days, June 23, 24 and 25. The committee of arrangements has appropriated about $100 for prizes for athletic events, and other out door attractions. So far the following events have been arranged:

Two mile foot race, first prize solid gold medal; second prize silver medal. At least three must start. This race is to decide the championshipship of Bradford county, and is open only to residents of the county.

One mile foot race, first prize $10; second prize $5. Open to any one in Bradford county. At least three must start.

Half mile foot race, first prize $5; second prize $3. Open to any one in Bradford county. At least three must start.

One mile bicycle race, first prize $10; second prize $5. Open to any one in Bradford county. At least three must start.

Automobile hill climbing contest, prize $10 for the car going to the top of Bridge street hill in the quickest time. All cars of 30 hp or over must crank engine make standing start from Main street time starting with cranking of engine; all cars under 30 hp make flying start from the wagon bridge, time beginning on Main street. This contest is open to any automobilist in Bradford county.

Another event in which a prize is offered is the fantastic parade on Friday, the second old home day. For the most attractive, either beautiful or comical get up and exhibited in the parade, a prize of $10 will be given.

All these racing events will be held on Friday the second old home, day and will take place on Main street, except the automobile hill climbing contest which will take place on Bridge street. The foot races will be up and down Main street until the required distance is covered; also the bicycle race. The bicycle race is to create interest in amateur bicycle racing in Bradford county again. A large number of wheels are owned, and there are many good riders. Good time can be made on the oiled streets, brick pavement and level Main street, and this should prove very exciting.

All that is necessary to make these racing events successful is a large number of entries.

The entry list is now open at The Review office. Call, send or telephone your entry, stating which race you desire to participate in. In writing address communications to Racing Manager, care Daily Review, Towanda.

FAMOUS GLENN CURTISS CANNOT VISIT TOWANDA.

So Informs the Old Home Committee. Lots of Attractions.

President Taft could not find time to come to Towanda during the old home days, June 23, 24 and 25, and he was excused by the committee who are aware of the fact that he is a busy man.

Undaunted, the committee set out to secure another attraction of national importance and so made Glenn H. Curtiss, the famous aeroplanist a tempting offer to come to the City of Promise and make a number of flights. Yesterday C. L. Stewart received a letter from Mr. Curtiss which states that he is unable to make flights in Towanda on any of the dates mentioned, but would gladly agree to come any time he has open.

The committee has decided that it would not be well to postpone the old home day celebration on account of the inability of Mr. Curtiss to be present, so the arrangements are going on, there will be plenty of other attractions, and there will be nothing lacking in the way of excitement.

ITALIAN BARTENDER UNDER ARREST CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Former New Albany Girl Figures in Case at Elmira.

Says the Elmira Advertiser: "John Bristol, an Italian bartender, 40 years of age, is under arrest on the charge of criminal assault in the second degree. He was arrested on Saturday morning and at that time was in company with Lena Zuras, the pretty 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zuras, of 715 Delaware avenue. She is being held by the police as a witness.

"Lena Zuris is a girl who has caused the police and her parents a great deal of trouble. Last November she was arrested for being a disorderly person At that time she made it appear that she had been ill treated by her parents. For some time past she has been out of town, living in Sayre, Waverly, and New Albany, Pa.

"She alleges that Bristol brought her to this city Friday night. Further developments in the case are expected."

Tunkhannock Liquor Case.

State Trooper John Ryan arrested Robert L. Avery on Sunday afternoon on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. He was taken before Justice G. S. Baldwin, where he plead guilty to the charge. As Judge Terry was out of town, he entered bail in the sum of $300 to await disposition of the case. It is said that the trooper obtained liquor himself from Avery on the plea that he was sick and needed a stimulant. The authorities had been aware for some time that liquor was being surreptitiously peddled on Sunday, and the matter was put into the hands of the constabulary, with orders to ferret it out.—Tunkhannock New Age.

If you are not satisfied after using according to directions two-thirds of a bottle of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, you can have your money back. The tablets cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the digestion, regulate the bowels. Give them a trial and get well. Sold by E. P. Kester, Pharmacist.

"MR. WOODMAN, SPARE THAT TREE' PLAYED IN WAVERLY.

Woman Uses Flag to No Avail, and Then Her Husband Tried Hose.

Waverly is having a great time over the proposed removal of shade trees from some of the principal streets of that village. Some of the people are in favor of removing the trees while others say "no."

Early Thursday morning Mat Foley of Athens and a gang of men attempted to cut down a large elm tree that stands on Waverly street, partly on the Baldwin property and partly on the Youngs Creamery Co. property. Some one saw the work in progress and telephoned the Young residence and Mrs. Young, taking an American flag, ran to the place and wrapping it around the tree, ordered the men to desist. Without being influenced by the presence of the flag the men took Mrs. Young away and continued their work.

It was not long before Mr. Young arrived on the scene. He saw that neither sentiment for the flag nor the tree was effective so he decided on a more forcible means of saving the tree. He procured a garden hose and turned it on the men who were working and they at once left the job. While the tree is badly damaged it is not harmed to such an extent that it will die, and unless something further is done, it will stand for many years to come.

Pittston Strike Settled.

Says a news dispatch from Pittston: "The miners' strike here ended this morning and all collieries were in operation today except No. 14, where the strike started and where a majority of the miners are aliens. These men met this evening and will resume work tomorrow. State constabulary and Sheriff's deputies were on the lookout for probable trouble, but no disturbance of any sort occurred. It is said that unless the company lives strictly up to its promise the men will be out again. The general committee will meet here Friday night preparatory to placing grievances before company officials."

Favored Potter County.

For many years Potter county was the butt of jokes and ridicule by reason of its special license laws, and the great crops of succulent leeks, but today it is trimming up every other county in the State in a comparative way. It has more macadamized roads according to population, more State lands according to territory, and the State is spending more money to stock Potter county streams, according to basinage, than any other. This is another case of where one laughs last he laughs best, admits The Port Allegany Reporter.

State Politics.

Republican and Democratic State leaders are busy putting the final touches to the arrangements for the convention to be held at Allentown on Wednesday of this week and the one to be held at Harrisburg just one week later. They spent Saturday and Sunday in Atlantic City. The Republican leaders were in session at the Hotel Shelburne and just across the street at the Hotel Dennis, the Democratic leaders held forth.

Busy Day.

Says the Troy Gazette-Register: 'The Troy Engine & Machine Co. made shipment of an engine to Australia; booked a mail order from South America and a telegraph order from the United States government for shipment to the Philippines, all in one day Wednesday. Not an unusual day's business as to number of engines, but interesting as to widely separated placing."

Why Take Alcohol?

Are you thin, pale, easily tired, lack your usual vigor and strength? Then your digestion must be poor, your blood thin, your nerves weak. You need a tonic and alterative. You need Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. We believe your doctor would endorse these statements, or we would not make them. Ask him and find out. Follow his advice. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The endorsement of your doctor will certainly greatly increase your confidence in Ayer's Pills as a family laxative. Liver pills. All vegetable. Ask your doctor about them.

WALDO WINS BY HALF DOZEN VOTES

Official Returns of the Uniform Primaries of Saturday.

According to the official canvass of the vote at the Uniform Primaries on June 4, E. A. Waldo of Wyalusing, wins a State delegateship over Dr. C. L. Stevens of Athens, by just six votes. This is one of the closest contests for delegate ever recorded in Bradford county.

The Official Figures.

Following are the official figures as returned after the canvass of the vote in the County Commissioners office:

For Congress—Hon. C. C. Pratt received 2,601 Republican and eight Prohibition votes, making him the nominee of both those parties. Hon. G. W. Kipp received 400 Democratic, 95 Republican and one Prohibition vote. Sidney R. Matteson, Socialist, received 29 votes on his party ticket.

For the Legislature—W. J. McCabe received 2,567 Republican, and 45 Democratic votes. Hon. C. E. Mills received 2,372 Republican, 52 Democratic, and one Prohibition vote. Hon. George Moscrip received 1,675 Republican, 48 Democratic and seven Prohibition votes. Messrs. Mills and Moscrip are the Democratic nominees for the legislature, according to the official count, and their names will appear on the tickets of that party next November unless they withdraw. E. A. Taylor of Burlington, the People's Party candidate for the legislature, received 16 Republican, and five Democratic votes. Rev. W. S. H. Heermans of Towanda received 73 Prohibition, six Republican and one Democratic vote. Grant Hutchinson of Sayre, received 66 Prohibition, one Republican and one Democratic vote. Harry W. Chas. Schalertner, Prohibition	68

Joke Voting.

The usual amount of joke voting was done, there being about 100 one-vote candidates for each of the offices.

Interest in Musical Convention.

Much interest is being manifested in the musical convention to be held in the Methodist and Presbyterian churches at Wyalusing commencing next Monday, June 13, and ending with a grand concert on the following Saturday evening. The best musicians in this section will attend, and a profitable meeting is expected. The convention will be under the direction of Prof. R. B. George of Chicago, Illinois. Mr. George stands at the head as a musical director, having had more conventions than any other man. Prof. F. Shipley Green has been secured as organist and baritone soloist; also Mrs. George, alto, making the strongest corps of instructors and entertainers ever brought to the county. The Committee feel sure that this will be the greatest convention ever held in Wyalusing.

Will Make Twenty-Two Addresses.

To the Electors of Bradford County: Rest assured that I appreciate the kindness shown me by recording your vote at the primaries on June 4, in my favor. I intend, during the campaign, to deliver 22 addresses in this county and will then and there explain why the burden of taxes rests so heavily upon the shoulders of the farmers and workingmen. Your humble servant, E. A. Taylor, Burlington, Pa., People's Party candidate for the legislature. d&w1t

Bitten by New Dog.

Rush Rogers of Estella, Sullivan county, purchased a shepherd dog of parties in Hoytville, Pa., and the animal arrived at the New Albany express station Wednesday. Mr. Rogers called and claimed the dog, and just as he was ready to start for home, the animal bit him on the hand, making a very painful injury. Dr. Harshberger assisted by Druggist Ray Wilcox, attended to the injury, and Mr. Rogers went home, taking the dog with him. The canine will be chained and kept under close watch for a number of days.

Boys Found Body.

Angus Gillis, a woodsman, was found dead in Lycoming creek near the tannery at Ralston, on Monday afternoon. It is thought that Gillis had fallen into the creek sometime Saturday night. He had been employed in the woods at Masten and had been about Ralston for several days. He was not feeling well, and it is thought that while near the creek he had a fainting spell and fell into the water.

Called it Off.

The Elmira Advertiser, which recently conducted a European trip subscription contest, announces that the trip has been abandoned and the contest winners will be paid the cash equivalent. Two of the six winners were unable to go and the others prefered the cash.

Annapolis Graduate.

Bartlett Macfarlane, who is visiting his mother, Mrs. E. O. Macfarlane, has completed his four years course in the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, and graduated last week. After a vacation, he will be come attached to the U. S. S. Vermont, and will be stationed along the New England coast.

Fine Monument.

Burchill Bros. have erected a fine monument in the cemetery at Granville Centre to the memory of the late Lee G. Arnold. It is one of the finest monuments in western Bradford county, and was erected by the widow of the deceased.

ROAD SUPERVISORS BROUGHT TO TIME BY MAIL CARRIER.

Six of Them Pay Costs and Agree to Obey the Law.

Nine road supervisors, representing three townships, were before Justice Meredith Monday on the charge of neglect to enforce or obey the law which requires that all loose stones be removed from the highways during certain months each year. Six of the supervisors admitted the charge while the other three will have their case argued this morning before a decision is made. Charles E. Potter, rural mail carrier No. 2 out of Towanda is the complainant.

Hiram Luther, William Hawkins and Mott Brown of North Towanda township; Jay Ward, T. J. Kirwin and Charles Stroud of Towanda township, are the six supervisors who admitted neglect to observe or enforce the law, and they paid the costs, and agreed to carry out the mandates of the road law.

E. W. Wheeler, E. A. Knapp and J. O. Nichols supervisors of Burlington township, admitted that one section of road in their township would not pass muster according to the loose stone law, and established the fact that the other roads were free from obstructions.

It was shown that the three supervisors had entered into an agreement whereby the township was divided into three districts, each supervisor becoming responsible for the condition of the roads in his respective district. Two of them obeyed the law, while the others did not, it is claimed, and now the question for the justice to decide is whether the three supervisors are subject to fine and costs, or whether just J. O. Nichols, the one in whose district the loose stones are complained of is responsible. The case will be argued this morning, Benjamin Kuykendall, Jr. appearing for the supervisors, and I. McPherson for the commonwealth.

These proceedings are the first of a number to be instituted in Bradford county against road supervisors who have failed to observe or enforce the law. The Postoffice Department at Washington has decided to withdraw free mail delivery from all sections where the roads are not kept in condition, and in all townships where the loose stones are not removed from the highway in accordance with the act of assembly.

To withdraw the mail service would be a harm and detriment to a great many people who are not to blame for the condition of the roads, and so to avoid this the 76 mail carriers covering practically every road in Bradford county will make complaint against all supervisors who fail to observe the mandates of the law.

The supervisors can save themselves much trouble, not to say quite a little money by removing the loose stones from the roads and otherwise complying with the act of assembly governing the highways of the state.

Packer Hospital Notes.

The following patients were operated on at the Packer hospital Tuesday morning: Mrs. Rebecca Kilcort of Camptown; Mrs. Adelia Lewis of Powell and Miss Isabella Rockwell of Towanda.

Mrs. E. C. Fassett of Ulster was admitted to the Packer hospital yesterday.

Onofero Imerreata, the Italian who was stabbed in a row in Waverly a few weeks ago was discharged from the Packer hospital yesterday.

Serious Charges.

A Scranton man who calls himself Dr. W. Maczulski was arrested and taken before an alderman Tuesday charged with having estranged the affections of a young woman from her husband. After the hearing in the case, the attorney representing the prosecutor had Maczulski arrested, charged with practicing as a physician without being registered in this state.

Killed Large Hawk With Stone.

Robert Bowning, a boy living at South Hill in Orwell township, Wednesday afternoon threw a stone with such unerring aim that he struck and instantly killed a hawk perched on a limb of a tree 30 feet from the ground. The hawk measured three feet and eight and one-half inches from tip of the wing to tip of the wing.

Girls Victorious.

William P. Boland, referee in the case of the silk mill girls who have been on strike at the Simpson mill in Minooka for the last six months, Tuesday handed down his decision disposing of the demands for increased wages and the grievances against working conditions. The award is retroactive and is considered a substantial victory for the girls.

Will Tour Europe.

Miss Emily McCreight, formerly directress of nurses at the Robert Packer hospital and Miss Alice Fish of Waverly left Wednesday afternoon on Lehigh train No. 4 for New York. From there they will sail for Naples, Italy. They will witness the Passion Play at Oberammergan and will travel through Italy, Switzerland, Germany, France, England and Scotland.

New Shoe Salesman.

J. E. Freedman of Waverly, has accepted a position as salesman in the G. M. Clark shoe store. Mr. Freedman is not a stranger in this section, having been engaged in business in Wyalusing for a number of years. He is familiar with the shoe trade, and will prove a valuable acquisition to the Clark store.

Child Swallowed a Pin.

The four years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Woodford of Daggett, just over the line in Tioga county, on Tuesday evening swallowed a pin which lodged in the throat. The child was in a serious condition for some time, but was relieved by Dr. Seafuse of Elmira, who dislodged the pin, it passing into the stomach. The child is not yet out of danger.

Condition Improving.

The condition of Charles Thomas who has his left leg amputated under the wheels of a Lehigh train Saturday morning, is showing a marked improvement. The physicians at the Packer hospital announce that there is a good chance for his recovery. Saturday it was thought he could not live.—Sayre Times-Record.

FOUND GOLD IN THE WILDS OF SULLIVAN COUNTY.

Williamsport Engineer Picks Up Stones Which Contain Minerals

Says the Williamsport News: "While walking over the mountain in the wilds of Sullivan county recently, Alfred Lovelace, an engineer in the Sweet's steel plant made a startling discovery. In one of the mountains many miles from any settlement, in one of the wildest spots in the state's center, Mr. Lovelace ran across a black stone in the side of a hill. Picking it up and thinking that the stone might posibly contain some mineral, Mr. Lovelace took the stone home with him.

"When he reached the house he placed the stone on a shelf in the parlor. Next to the stone was a small battery. No sooner had the stone been placed on the shelf than the battery attached the stone to it. Amazed at what had taken place Mr. Lovelace returned to the spot where he had procured the little black stone and gathered a small quantity of them.

"Returning home he sent samples to Colorado and New York. In less than a week Mr. Lovelace received an answer from Colorado.

"A special had examined the stones and stated that they were highly impregnated with magnetic iron and seven other valuable minerals of which traces of gold were prominent. The owner of the land lives in Virginia and efforts are being taken by Mr. Lovelace to purchase the land."

GASOLINE LIGHTING SYSTEM EXPLODED.

The business part of Danville came very near being wiped out by fire Saturday evening from an explosion of the gasoline lighting system in Lewis Bros. & Sater's store. Shortly after lighting the lights in the evening Nathan Lewis went into the room where the gasoline tank was kept, and struck a match to see the amount of pressure, when the air, ladened with the vapor from the leaking gasoline tank exploded, singeing his hair and setting fire to the room and contents. The prompt and heroic work of Mr. Lewis in carrying out the gasoline tank and of his brother and a few others in fighting out the flames, alone prevented the loss of this and several other buildings. A little later it was discovered that the floor underneath the store was burning and a hole wos cut through and the fire put out.

Took a Liking to W. J. Ruggles.

W. J. Ruggles, of the well known dry goods firm of Rooker & Ruggles is nursing a sore face. On Monday of last week Mr. Ruggles, George D. McCabe, Mark Hancock and F. D. Montanye went to Bean Run, Sullivan county, to angle for trout. It is a well known fact that mosquitos, gnats, and other insects of prey haunt the trout streams of Sullivan county, but they do not take a liking to the majority of people. Monday night Mr. Ruggles entertained large swarms of the insects, and what they did to him left very pronounced marks. The other members of the party were undisturbed, and slept peacefully all during the night while Mr. Ruggles was figuring in a feast. The four gentlemen fished two days and caught a total of 99 fine trout, which in a measure paid for the suffering of Mr. Ruggles.

In Wakeful Waverly.

Says the Waverly Free-Press: "Much comment was caused yesterday by a strange celestial phenomenon which for its rarity and peculiarity rivalled in interest the appearance of Halley's comet. It was first seen in the east and resembled a huge ball of fire lighting up the sky over a large area and gradually rising until obscured by clouds. Nothing like it is remembered for a long time past, but some of our older residents say they have seen the same phenomenon for days at a time and that they can remember when it was no usual occurrence. Some of our local scientists have looked the matter up in their text books and believe the heavenly visitor is the sun."

Fire Police Organized.

The Towanda fire police met in the Naiad rooms Monday night and affected an organization by electing Warren Warren Smith capt. and A. E. Coolbaugh lieut. The fire police will make it a point to enforce the rules of the department, rope off districts at every fire and allow no one inside the ropes except the firemen. The fire police will also guard the property against theft during a fire.

Valuable Lesson.

Wellsboro had a narrow escape from being mulcted $10,000 in a sidewalk damage case. The jury is said to have stood eleven to one for giving the full amount claimed as the result of a fall. Itis likely that county-seat authorities will enforce sidewalks ordinances stricter than ever, for $10,000 would build heaps of walks.

May Lose an Eye.

Harry Whiting of Troy, met with a very painful accident the other day. He was assisting Smith Palmer blast rocks on his farm south of Troy borough when a wedge flew and struck him in the eye. This morning Dr. Ballard accompanied him to the hospital at Williamsport for treatment. It is feared that he will lose the sight of his eye.

STICKLEY-BRANDT FURNITURE CO.
BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

HON. GEORGE W. KIPP IS ONE OF THE OFFICERS.

Member of Finance Committee of Scranton Fire Insurance Co.

At a meeting of the directors of the Scranton Fire Insurance company held Friday afternoon in the officers of the company in Scranton, a re-organization of the company was effected with the election of the following committees:

President, W. J. Davis, of this city; vice-president, John Kuhback, of Honesdale; treasurer, Dr. F. J. Bishop; secretary, J. Sanderson Trump. Finance committee, Valentine Bliss and F. W. Wollerton, of Scranton and Hon. George W. Kipp, of Towanda; underwriting committee, Adam Spitzer, Dr. F. J. Bishop, Anthony Probst and J. Sanderson Trump; appraisal committee, John Benore, Adam Spitzer and Dr. F. J. Bishop.

The company has a capital stock of $200,000 and since it opened for business recently has been very successful. The majority of the officers and stockholders in the company are local men.

Boys Try Incendiarism.

A news dispatch from Wellsboro says: "A fortunate discovery made by Mrs. F. J. Vater here Wednesday evening nipped a juvenile attempt at incendiarism in the bud, thus preventing what might have been a destructive fire. Her discovery also unmasked a unique but real evidence of boyish revenge. There has been friction between two factions of boys in the community described by the junction of Reberville and Tioga streets for some time. Young Vater, who was one of the leaders in one of the crowds had pitched a tent close to the house, which evidently stirred up the enmity of other boys. Mrs. Vater noticed a streak of fire on the lawn in the rear of the house and going to investigated found a long fuse used for the dynamiting purposes slowly burning. She stamped out the fire and found the fuse was ten feet long and ran into the tent where it ended in a bottle of gasoline. Boys in the rival faction confessed to having fixed the "infernal machine" in an effort to destroy the tent".

To Enforce Drug Laws.

The state Pharmaceutical Examining Board, which has concluded a three weeks session at the Capitol at Harrisburg during which the papers of 466 persons, who applied for registration were examined, has devided the State into five districts, each under the supervision of its resident members, for the purpose of enforceing the pharmacy, pure food and anticocaine laws. It is the intention to carry on a State wide and vigorous campaign against the sale of misbranded and adulterated drugs and the conduct of drug stores without qualified managers. Officers elected by the board for the ensuing year are: Louis Emanuel, Pittsburg, president; Christopher Koch, Philadelphia, vice president; Lucius L. Walton, Williamsport, secretary; and George D. Stroh, Pittston, treasurer.

Settles Road Question.

A news dispatch from Harrisburg says: "Deputy Attorney General William Hargest has settled the question whether counties can apply for state aid for reconstruction of roads without concurrence of township supervisors by a ruling that they cannot do so except where roads have been taken under the provisions of the county road act of 1895. The question has been before the state highway department from several counties."

Raid in Scranton.

Scranton police officers, in plain clothes, raided seven alleged disorderly houses in the central part of the city about 11 o'clock Saturday night. Thirty-two women and 13 men were arrested. They were taken to police headquarters in patrol wagons and cabs.

LEHIGH VALLEY COMPANY WILL BORE THROUGH MOUNTAIN

Tunnel to Be Put Through at Mauch Chunk to Cut Out Curve.

At a meeting of the directors of the Lehigh Valley Railroad to be held June 22, they will be asked to appropriate $2,000,000 to defray the expenses incident to tunneling through Bear Mountain at Mauch Chunk, one of the highest mountains in that section.

The object of this interesting piece of proposed engineering is to shorten the main line, to eliminate a dangerous compound reverse curve, to give to the company greater security in the transportation of coal, general freight and passengers. The construction of the tunnel will be difficult on account of the height of the mountain, which is more than 900 feet from the bed of the railroad running around the compound reserve course at its base.

The curve, which is more than three miles long, traverses the east side environs of the town of Mauch Chunk, commonly known as the Switzerland of America on account of its surrounding mountains. Bret Harte, the novelist, while on a visit to the village years ago, dubbed it the "Crack in the Earth," giving as a reason for calling it thus that the earth must have opened at an early date and failed to close up again.

The work of boring the mountain will begin from two sides. From the south side above the village of Packerton, where the railroad crosses the Lehigh river, and the other opening will be at East Mauch Chunk, where the Mauch Chunk passenger and freight stations of the company are situated. The mountain from the top will be penetrated by one or more openings, or shafts, driven to the level of the horizontal openings. From here two compartments, or sections will be started, one to meet the operation from the Packerton side and the other going Northside of the mountain, or East Mauch Chunk. These galleries will be driven as quickly as circumstances will permit and with good engineering judgment provides, where a double track tunnel is required.

W. F. VOORHIS A CANDIDATE FOR REGISTER AND RECORDER

Well Known and Prominent Athenian Announces Candidacy.

Wilson F. Voorhis, one of Athens' best known and most promient citizens, was in Towanda yesterday, and announced his candidacy for the office of register of wills and recorder of deeds of Bradford county.

Mr. Voorhis is a native of Springfield township, has been a life-long resident of the county, and always a staunch follower of the flag of Republicanism. Before going to Athens he was a resident of Smithfield. He has a wide acquaintance throughout the county, and many warm friends who will accord him their hearty support.

Asylum School Board Meeting.

At a meeting of the school board of Asylum townsnip on Monday, an eight months school term was voted and the tax rate fixed at 8 mills. This township has always had a seven months term. By giving the pupils another month of schooling it often advances them a grade instead of holding them back for another year. The average daily attendance for the seven schools was 117. The daily attendance at the Center school was 31, and at the Birch school it was 24, making the two schools a daily average of 55. In the other five schools the average was 62. There is no doubt but what the other districts have the same thing to contend with some teachers teaching five or six pupils, while others have over thirty. The new officers elected were: President, George A Frutchey; secretary, J. B. Neiley; and treasurer, John J. Elliott. The election of teachers was deferred until the next meeting.

Ulster Independent District.

The Ulster independent school district organized last Monday night by electing the following officers: President, M. P. Evans; secretary, R. B. Allen; treasurer, Robert Dixon. Committee on books and supplies, Dr. J. E. Daly and R. B. Allen. Building committee, R. Dixon, George Watkins. Fuel, E. Sherman, M. Evans. After a lengthy discussion it was decided to lower the tax rate one mill, making it 5 mills for the ensuing year. A proposition to lengthen the school term from eight to nine months was considered but action upon the same was deferred to some subsequent meeting The usual reading of applications for positions as teachers was not carried out as one by one the teachers for the past year were unanimously elected. Salaries are to be the same as last year.

Sayre Had Mad Dog Scare.

Sayre had a mad dog scare Thursday. The canine, groling and frothing at the mouth attempted to bite several people, drove people helter skelter, and was finally shot and killed by Fred H. Goodwin. The dog grabbed the muzzle of the gun just as Goodwin pulled the trigger.

Lehigh Bridge Burned.

A Lehigh Valley bridge near Dryden, on the Auburn branch burned Wednesday and that branch is badly blocked. The bridge was build of wood and was one of the few that the Lehigh has not replaced with a steel structure. The fire was caused, it is thought, by a spark from an engine.

Birthday Surprise.

Many friends of Olives Goodwin of East Towanda, gave him a pleasant surprise on his 28th birthday, June 10 The house was elaborately trimmed with ferns and cut flowers. The evening was spent in games, music and songs. An elegant supper was seryed at 12 o'clock after which the friends departed for their homes. Many friends of town were present.

MOTOR CARS FOR LEHIGH TRACK SUPERVISORS.

Will Allow Them to Make Closer Inspection of Tracks.

In order to make a much closer inspection of the tracks and property under their supervision than was formerly posible, the use of motor cars by its supervisors of track has just been introduced on the Lehigh Valley railroad. This is a new departure, intended to insure the absolute safety of passengers, and enables the inspectors to see that every spike and bolt is in place, and every tie in good condition.

The new motor cars look exactly like the old hand-propelled railroad velocipedes used by the regular track force, but the motive power is a small gasolene engine. The motor cars can run from twenty to twenty-five miles an hour, but in practice they go much slower, so as to alow an inspection of every detail.

More frequent stops are thus made possible, and the supervisors are enabled to get into closer touch with their men. The cars are so light that they can readily be lifted from the track in five or ten seconds, the same as the track velocipede to make way for a passing train.

CARBONDALE MAN INVENTS COAL STRIPPING MACHINE.

Will Manufacture and Put it on the Market in Near Future.

Satisfied with the success of his coal stripping machine invention William Clemow, of Carbondale, is preparing to manufacture and put the machines on the market.

Several years ago Clemow, who is an old Miner, quit mining and became a contractor, doing the excavating around stripping operations in the process of mining. The old way of digging and carting became too expensive and he racked his head for a new scheme. The stripping machine was the result. With the machine he moves a cubic yard of dirt and dumps it at whatever place on a dump he wants to in two minutes. Seven men do the work. The steam is gotten to work the machine by attaching the pipes to the plant where the work is being done. The dirt is hauled to the dump by means of endless cables revolving on drums and spools. Wherever stripping mining is done the invention is bound to work so economic a change that its worth is incalculable. Clemow has had his digger in operation at the Powderly mine in Carbondale and it's been a big success.

CONCRETE ON THE FARM.

Department of Agriculture Issues Instructive Bulletin.

An instructive bulletin just issued by the Department of Agriculture tells how farmers may construct their own fence posts out of concrete. The bulletin says:

"If manufactured as usual and cured three months, concrete posts are as good as the best wooden posts of the same size. After three years service wooden posts possess only from one-third to one-half of the original strength, whereas, concrete grows stronger with age and needs no repairs, for neither weather nor fire injures it. Under ordinary circumstances, good concrete posts will last forever; and even if a few, in the course of years, should be broken by unusual strains, it is cheaper to replace these than to replace an entire fence of decayed wooden posts with posts of material with the same lack of durability.

"Concrete posts are atractive in appearance because of their uniformity of size and color and, because of their durability, they effect a saving in giving greater life to the fencing material used, so that the permanent value of the property is increased."

Full instructions for making concrete posts are given and the bulletin can be had from the Department for the asking.

Will Celebrate Centennial.

The Presbyterian church of Montrose is making extensive preparations to celebrate the centennial anniversary the first three days of July. All of the former pastors and their wives have been invited to participate in the sessions and exercises to be held and the event will be of general interest to the community and all who have been or now are connected with the church.

Ice Cream Social.

There will be an ice cream social at the home of Bird Shores Friday evening, June 17, for the benefit of the Central Grange Building fund. All are cordially invited.

LANE AND SICKLER MATCH RACE HORSES

Will be Feature of Celebration in Towanda on the Fourth.

After considerable dickering, Isaac Sickler of the Arlington hotel, and Dr. C. Henri Lane on Saturday matched their fast horses for a race to take place on the East Towanda fair grounds on July 4th.

This race will be one of the features of a celebration to be held in Towanda, and it is for a purse of $200 it should be very exciting. Other attractions on the fair grounds on the Fourth will be a ball game between Towanda and some other fast team, trotting, and pacing races, foot races, bicycle and automobile racing.

All athletes taking part in the events in Towanda during old home days may enter the events on the fair grounds. Good purses will be given the winner in each contest. In the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks in Towanda, making the "ever glorious Fourth" one big day in the City of Promise.

The celebration will be for the benefit of the Bradford County Agricultural Society and every one of the many members of that organization will assist in making it a success.

There will be no need of going away from home for the Fourth as there will be plenty doing in Towanda.

The Big "Hoss" Race.

Great interest centres on the match horse race in which steppers owned by Dr. C. H. Lane and Isaac Sickler will contest for a $200 purse. This race has been the talk of Bradford county "hoss" circles for several days, Mr. Sickler having challenged Dr. Lane through The Review. Having great faith in his speeder, Dr. Lane came to the mark quickly, and the race was arranged.

Following is the agreement entered into by Messrs. Lane and Sickler:

Towanda, Pa., June 11, 1910.

This agreement made and concluded this 11th day of June, 1910, by and between C. Henri Lane and Isaac Sickler of Towanda, Pa. Witnesseth:

We hereby agree to match Lady Ermine, owned by the party of the second part, and Roscoe Bell owned by the party of the first part, for a match race three and five, to be raced over the Towanda track of the Bradford County Agricultural Society on July 4th, 1910, weather permitting, for a prize, and we hereby agree to deposit with Dr. L. G. Marshall, fifty dollars ($50) forfeit money to be paid to the contending party should either fail to appear ready for race. Race to be made play or pay for a prize of $200. Race to be under National Trotting Association rules, hobbles not barred. Balance of forfeit money to be placed on or before July 1st, 1910.

(Signed)
ISAAC SICKLER.
C. HENRI LANE.

Will Contest Nomination.

"Farmer" William T. Creasy of Columbia county, who was defeated for the Democratic nomination in the Twenty-fourth senatorial district, threatens to contest the nomination of Charles W. Sones, who, the official count shows, had a plurality of 74 votes in the district. He alleges frauds were committed in Sullivan county. Creasy says that in the July issue of the Pennsyv'a Grange News he will begin writting the political history of Pennsylvania for the last 12 or 15 years, and promises that it will make interesting reading.

Seven Entries For Bike Race.

There are already 7 entries for the mile bicycle race to be held in Towanda on the second old home day, June 24. The following sturdy young Towandians have sent in their names and will compete for the prize: Henry Winter, Bert Wood, Harry Keggeries, John Hill and Paul Marshall, Cyrus Johnson, and Carlton Clark. The entry list is still open, and all riders desiring to enter the race should send in their names at once.

After Electric Company.

The state fish department is seeking to compel the New Milford Electric Light company, Susquehanna county, to remove screens from a pond of 450 acres in order that the fish may enter streams that are public. 'Squire Axtell is expected to hand down a decision in the case today.

It's the Jar More than the Recipe

Pear Preserves — How to Can Peaches

Handsome fresh fruits make handsome preserved fruits, only when they're canned whole—without either cutting or crushing.

The jar that has a mouth wide enough to admit all our best domestic fruits—peaches, pears, etc.—whole is the "Atlas E-Z Seal."

Therefore, the best results in preserving are possible only when you use the Atlas E-Z Seal Jar.

Buy these jars of your dealer before the fruit season comes on and be ready to preserve appearance as well as quality.

The Atlas E-Z Seal Jar is extra quality glass; smooth on top and an instant sealer.

BASE BALL

TOWANDA'S TEAM TOO SWIFT FOR LACEYVILLE.

Locals Had No Trouble in Thumping Braintrim Boys.

The Towanda baseball team went to Laceyville Saturday, and there on the Laceyville grounds did something which no other team has done this Summer, Winter, Fall or Spring—and that is to thump the Braintrim boys good and hard. The score was 8—4, Towanda having the eight.

Laceyville has played six games this season, stacking up against the best teams that could be secured, and not once did they lose. The good people of the thriving village had come to believe that no team in these parts could defeat Laceyville on their own grounds but they were sadly mistaken. The Towanda aggregation without blare of trumpets or uncalled for noise ambled on the field Saturday afternoon, and when they trotted off all Laceyville was in gloom for their pets had been walloped, trampled upon and plastered with Braintrim mud right before their eyes.

Kisner was on the mound for Towanda, and after the first inning, he was instructed to let the Laceyville boys hit so the Towanda players could get some fielding practice. This he did, and some of the nicest kind of fielding was done behind him. Corbett starred as usual, pulling down line drives and catching runners off the pads very nicely. The entire Towanda team played well, the two or three errors they made not being costly. McCracken did excellent work behind the way. Hinds at first, Cotter at Second and Blowers at third had a lot of fun bothering the runners and keeping them away from home. In the outfield "Huny" Smith cavorted in left garden, "Ash" Parsons was in centre and Ingham played right field. They did some very nice work, robbing the Laceyville boys of what seemed good for hits.

At the bat, Towanda shone brighter than the sun has for several weeks. Donovan, a Bloomsburg normal school pitcher was on the gum for Laceyville and he was touched up in every inning, the Towandians disturbing the atmosphere of regard which he tried to draw about himself in a shameful manner.

Laceyville swears vengeance and they are coming to Towanda on the second old home day with the avowed intention of defeating Towanda on the East side grounds. This, they claim, is the only way in which their wounded feelings can be healed.

Powell Wins Again.

One of the best games seen on the Powell diamond thus far this season was pulled off Friday when the Powell Juniors added laurels to their string of victories by defeating a fast team from Laquin by the score of 10 to 3. Harris, Powell's "Kid" pitcher, was backed by sensational fielding stunts which raised the spectators to their feet on several occasions with war whoops to be heard far around. "Doc" Place in center accepted six chances without a slip, while "Stub" Wheeler at short handled everything coming his way. A glove-handed catch of a fast liner from the bat by Cook at second was one of the features of the game. Laquin played a good game in the field. Seventeen hits for a total of 24 bases was the batting record for Powell, while Laquin made eight hits for a total of as many bases. The Juniors are still after the scalps of the Third Ward Tigers, Second Ward Juniors, and other teams playing in their class. Teams from other towns would like to be heard from. Games may be had by writing the Powell Junior Baseball Club. The score:

This is the Junior's seventh victory, with but two games under the lost column.

The Towanda baseball team plays Laquin at Laquin on Saturday of this week.

The Towanda baseball team has arranged the following games for old home week: Thursday the strong Laquin team comes; Friday Laceyville's fast aggregation will play here and on Saturday the Waverly semi-professionals will be here for a game

Game at Powell.

To the entire satisfaction of all the spectators and participants the City Team of Powell, defeated the Powell Juniors on Tuesday, and it was to the overwhelming tune of 10 to 1, this being the first time they have been able to accomplish this little feat out of four times to try. The Juniors are playing ball in fine style, and would like to hear from any teams of their class. The score:

City	...0	0	0	3	2	0	3	0	2—10
Juniors	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0— 1

The Towanda—Sayre high school ball game scheduled for the East side grounds Saturday afternoon was postponed on account of the unfit condition of the grounds.

Northern Electric Plans.

It is now fairly assured that the Northern Electric trolley line will soon be extended from Lake Winola to Nicholson. Once the trolley is established to Nicholson, it is not thought that the trolley company officials will turn back to build the line via the eastern route through the Gibson, Clifford and Jackson to Binghamton, although a spur may be constructed. Parties who are following the promoters' movements closely think the western route via Brooklyn, Montrose and Lawsville the most feasible and now stands the best chances of being selected. Carbondale is not anxious that the trolley go through the east, as it will cut off much produce that rightly belongs to them by diverting it to Scranton. The Carbondale merchants' association is now paying over $100 per week for an extra train over the Erie for the purpose of bringing trade into that city.—Montrose Republican.

Children's Day Exercises.

Children's Day exercises were held Sunday morning, and the exercises of the children of the First Methodist Episcopal church were held last evening at 6 o 'clock. Excellent programs were carried out in both instances.

ASYLUM TOWNSHIP WOMAN'S CLOSE CALL FROM SUFFOCATION

Accidently Locked Herself in Small Closet in the House.

Mrs. Oliver Vanderpool of Asylum township, had a close call from suffocation in a small closet in her home the otner day. About 8 o'clock in the morning she went up to the small closet in which the smoked meat is kept. There is a spring lock on the door, and as she stepped inside it swung shut and locked her in.

The closet is small, hardly large enough for a person to turn around in, and Mrs. Vanderpool found herself in a dangerous position. There was no one else in the house, so there was no use in calling for help.

Her son came from the field about 9 o'clock, found the breakfast dishes still on the table, and wondered where his mother could be. He left the house, and about 11 o'clock returned and found the dishes still on the table. Then he commenced an investigation, and while going from room to room looking for his mother heard a faint cry which directed him to the meat closet.

He opened the door and his mother fell in his arms, barely conscious. There is no ventilation to the closet, and half an hour more in the close confinement and death would have resulted.

MONTROSE BOY DIES WITH LOCKJAW AT PACKER HOSPITAL

Death Claims Lad Who Was Accidentally Shot By Companion.

Tetanus, or as it is better known—lockjaw caused the death of Raymond Daly a seven years old boy whose home is in Montrose at the Robert Packer hospital at 8:45 o'clock Monday evening.

The boy was brought to Sayre and admitted to the hospital on May 29. Three days previous to that he and a boy 12 years of age were standing about 25 feet apart. The 12 years old boy a 12 gague shot gun in his hands and he thought it was not loaded. He pulled the trigger and the shot struck the Daly boy in the left hip cutting a hole as large as a man's fist which extended through the flesh of the hip and nearly into the abdominal cavity.

A Montrose physician cared for the injury for three days and then the boy was brought to Sayre. The wound was a bad one and at the Packer hospital a piece of the wad and some of the shot were removed.

The contraction of the muscles made it difficult to bring the edges of the hole together but the wound was apparently doing well until three days ago when it was noticed that there was a peculiar twitching of the hip muscles. During that entire day the tetanus seemed only to affect his hip Two days ago his jaws commenced tightening but at no time was the contraction of the facial muscles sufficient to prevent his mouth being forced open.

While the symptoms were not as violent as in most cases, there was nothing that could be done for him and death occurred Monday evening. The body was taken to Montrose early yesterday morning.

Sanitary Dining Car.

One of the Lehigh's dining cars is being remodeled in The Sayre shops. The interior of the car will be finished in mahogany of a fine polish. It will be absolutely free from carving, basrelief work, scroll or moldings of any kind, which in the opinion of railroaders, are dust collecting and microbe enormities. The effect of the plain mahogany finish is very rich and every precaution has been taken to make the car sanitary. The stove is surrounded by asbestos paper and galvanized iron and there is a smooth copper floor beneath the entire kitchen. The garnish paneling and frescoing of the Pullman cars of but a few years ago has been abandoned and the Lehigh Valley has extended this return to simplicity, which is almost severe, to the exterior of their coaches by merely placing the name and number of the car on it in silver leaf.

Rohan Gets Long Term.

At Bath, N. Y., John Rohan, convicted of first degree assault for shooting his wife in Corning last October, today was sentenced by Judge Burrell to 16 years' imprisonment in Auburn State Prison. The fact that it was a second offense added to the severity of the sentence. The Rohans formerly lived in Athens.

Toy Factory Idle.

The Hawes Manufacturing company plant was idle yesterday afternoon owing to the breaking of a large shafting. It is expected that repairs will be completed and operations resumed this morning. There are large orders on the books, and the factory is surely booming.

DR. LANGE HAS THE METAL EXPERTS PUZZLED.

Scranton Physician Transmutes Base Metal Into Silver Again.

Two pieces of metal given to a reporter for the New York World at Scranton, by Dr. Frederick W. Lange, who says he can transmute metals, were taken to the United States Assay Office in Wall street New York Tuesday and there assayed by the Government experts.

Their report of the assay showed the metal to be silver 989 fine. This is purer silver than that in the silver coins of the United States, which is 900 fine. Sterling silver is 925 fine. Dr. Lange's metal assayed 89 points finer that United States coin silver and 64 points finer than sterling silver.

The report of the United States Government Assay Office, gratifying as it may be to Dr. Lange, does not prove conclusively that he has mastered the art of making a precious metal out of a base metal by combining the base with the precious metal.

The two pieces of metal were the result of three different chemical processes, all of which were carried on by the Scranton physician in his underground laboratory in the presence and directly under the eye of the reporter.

While the experts say that it would be easy to "salt" the acids used to transmute metal into silver and thus fake it, yet they are puzzled, and are not going to pass opinion upon Dr. Lange until a full investigation has been made.

COMMISSIONER HUNTER WHACKS ROAD SYSTEM

Calls It a "Patchwork" System and Urges Reforms.

State Highway Commissioner Joseph W. Hunter has admitted that the present system of State road building ing Pennsylvania is all wrong. He characterized it as "patch work" and declared there should be a radical change of plan.

"In order to get rid in a measure of the patch work system now being followed and to provide for a system of continuous improved highways the legislature shoud adopt such a plan as will authorize the reconstruction of main roads or trunk lines throughout the State."

Commissioner Hunter pleads for laws which will enable the State to build main lines of roads and connect existing improved roads and cities and towns without the necessity for local initiative. He also urged that the state should maintain the roads.

The state has built 626 miles of road since the creation of the Highway Department, the bulk of the work in the last two years. The construction is handled entirely by the state, but townships and boroughs choose roads to be improved.

Lately steps have been taken to connect isolated links of road and several stretches of 10 or 12 miles soon will be ready for traffic. More attention is also being given to the use of brick on roads.

The state has 96.6 miles of road under contract and about $675,000 to spend on construction this year. The average cost per mile is between $8,500 and $9,000.

Former Towanda Lady Took Part

Mrs. John E. Fox of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly of Towanda, took a prominent part in the comencement exercises of Elmira College at Elmira on Wednesday June 8. During the day Science hall which is to be erected at once, the first sods being turned by three ladies, Mrs. Fox being one of them. Each lady was cheered to the echo. Mrs. Fox is a graduate of Elmira College, and for the past few years has been acticely engaged in assisting in the raising of funds to which has now been accomplished. The sum of $112,000 has been raised which will be used in erecting new buildings as well as wiping out the indebtedness of the institution.

Met in Towanda.

The Merchant's Union Protective Association of Bradford and Wyoming counties, met in Towanda yesterday, the sessions being held in the court house. About 40 members were present, and routine business was transacted. The ladies of the Universalist Church served a fine dinner for the visiting members of the Association, many of whom were accompanied by their wives. The next meeting will be held at Wyalusing on the second Thurs day in July, and will be an outing meeting.

Why Not a Special Train?

It has been suggested that the S. & N. Y. run a special train to Laquin from Towanda on Thursday, the first old home day. On that day the Laquin band will furnish music for the firemen's parade, and the Laquin baseball team will cross bats with Towanda, and a great many people will come to Towanda from the Lumber town if they can return home in the evening.

New School Principal at Canton.

At a meeting of the Canton school board last Monday evening, Prof. Orin W. Jaquish was elected principal for the next school year. Prof. Jaquish is a graduate of Grove City college, has taken much post graduate work and has had several years successful experience as principal of schools.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health.

The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross.

Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Great Family Doctor Book, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—1000 pages, answers in Plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free, in plain wrapper to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or in cloth binding for 31 stamps.

HAPPENINGS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Seniors, juniors and teachers were mixed up in a recent high school class fight at Greensburg. The seniors and faculty were returning from a banquet when juniors to the number of twenty made an attack on the upper classmen. The juniors were whipping the seniors when members of the faculty made a rush to stop the bout. The juniors then proceeded to beat up the teachers and the fight was the fiercest ever witnessed in Greensburg. The principal, Benjamin G. Graham, came out with a black eye and other bruises, while two other members of the faculty were a little the worse for wear. Some of the students, also, felt the effects of the fight after it was over. The seniors say that the juniors received the worst of the melee. The injured teachers say that the incident will be forgotten by the opening of the next school term, provided there is no more trouble.

Arthur Greer, aged 6, the son of one of the policemen that guarded the gates of Bryn Mawr college at, the time of the commencement last week, is an object of envy of every youngster in Bryn Mawr. He met President Taft, and shook hands with him when the latter was at the commencement. The little lad received permission from his father to enter the grounds and, going up to the very door of Taylor hall, amid students and spectators, in spite of the crush, he asked which of the men around was the president. Mr President, here is a future citizen who has come to see you", said the man addressed. "My boy, where did you get those blue eyes?" asked Mr. Taft. "I certainly am glad to see you." He shook the boy's hand and the little man rushed off to tell "pop."

After working for nearly an hour over the apparently-dead body of her 2-year-old son, Mrs. Mary Kentick, of Phoenixville, had the joy of seeing a spark of life; a couple of hours later the baby was playing around the house little the worse for his experience. He had been left in charge of a neighbor while the mother was away Falling into a tub of water, he remained ther some time before he was found. The body was blue, but the mother heroically worked over her son, while neighbors protested he was dead.

An old Williamsport resident recently informed a representative of one of that town's newspapers that June 2, 1843, it was so cold that the corn in the fields was frozen from the top to the ground, and that in the orchards under the apple trees the ground was black with frozen fruit. The freezing did not hurt the corn much he said, and the farmers who made no attempt to replant reaped a full crop. Those who replanted between the old hills, however, had many stocks for their trouble, but little corn.

At Norristown, the jury in the case of William Sheppard, the 14-year-old boy of Rock Ledge, charged with manslaughter in killing his stepfather, Jeremiah McManus, on March 11, returned a verdict Saturday night of involuntary manslaughter with a recommendation of mercy. Judge Swartz did not pass sentence of the boy, but released him from custody on probation. The boy's trial began in the Montgomery county court Friday morning and the case was given to the jury late in the afternoon. Because of the boy's age the case attracted considerable attention.

The breaking of two links in a chain attached to a motor made it impossible to give the usual Sunday recital on the big organ in Carnegie music hall, Pittsburg, last Sunday. A large crowd was disappointed. The damage was trifling, but could not be repaired on Sunday. During the midsummer when the hall is closed, repairs to the extent of $12,000 will be made to the instrument and, when the recitals start again, they will be on an almost new instrument.

The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by E. P. Kester, Pharmacist.

Five minsters and two editors were indicted on the charge of criminal libel in Butler recently with Rev. Claudius Freseman, of St. John's Lutheran church, of Mars, as the prosecutor. The charge is based on a resolution adopted by the Mars and Valencia Ministerial asociation Febbruary 24 and printed in the editor's papers. In it, it was stated that beer was shipped to Mars for influencing votors in the February elections, when Mr. Freseman was elected to the school board. Mr. Freseman says the shipping of the beer was a coincidence. The doctor had ordered it for his wife and it happened to come on election day. The beer was not touched until the day after the elections. Those named in the indictment are Rev. R. H. Roskwell, United Presbyterian; Rev. J. M. Miller, Evangelical Lutheran; Rev. P. B. Logan; Rev. A. P. Hutchison, editor of the Clean Commonwealth of Butler and Charles Andrews, editor of the Mars Dispatch.

After suffering 11 months with an abscess on the left lung, which baffled the skill of five local physicians, Mrs. William H. Miller, of Lock Haven, while coughing violently, remarked to her husband that something had torn loose from her lung. The next instant she was seized with another coughing spell, when she emitted a hard, bone-like partical from her mouth. On examination it proved to be a tooth. Since then the patient, who has suffered much, is improving, and hope is now entertained for her recovery. A year ago Mrs. Miller, while under the influence of an anaesthetic, had a number of teeth extracted, and she is of the opinion now that one of the teeth slipped down her throat and entered the lung.

Chivalry recently won over a railroad in the Lehigh county courts in a case in which Charles Ortt was charged with malicious mischief. He was on his way to see his girl several months ago and found the railroad crossing blocked by a train of cars. Soon some women came along and they too were held back. They were eager to go on and could not scramble over the cars. Ortt lifted the air-hose so that they could go under the bumpers more easily and the hose parted. Then there was trouble when the train was ready to start and Ortt had the charge brought against him. Judge Trexler quashed the indictment.

In charging the grand jury Judge W. D. Patton, of Armstrong county, recently asserted that there were a number of constables in that county who are inciting foreigners to bring suits without just cause and were doing this in order to pile up costs on the county. He told the grand jury to scrutinize the cases closely, and that if they found such cases, in which a constable was the prosecutor and the evidence was not sufficient to convict, they should place the costs on the constable.

TELEPHONING FROM LEHIGH VALLEY TRAINS.

General Manager Maguire Tests System Which is to Be Installed.

General Manager Maguire of the Lehigh Valley Railroad recently made a trip over the Wyoming Division in his private car for the purpose of trying out a telephone system designed to be used on passenger trains. His private car was equipped with the new innovation and judging from remarks he made it will not be long before all regular through passenger trains will carry a similar apparatus.

While it will be impossible as yet to so arrange the system so that a passenger may converse with a person while the train is rushing through space, this, it is believed will result later from some experiments now under way.

Practical results have, however, been obtained from the tests so far made with the result that General Manager Maguire is now arranging to have every train operated by the company equipped with the 'phones.

The experiments so far conducted shows that by carrying a telephone apparatus inthe train it is possible when a stop is made to alight from one of the cars, throw the end of a long wire over the telephone wire which runs parallel with the track and secure communication with any point desired.

The installation of the system will mean that if a man is on a train and it is necessary to reach him the operator at the next station will be communicated with and when the train is stopped the system will be pressed into service and the conversation carried on. The plan will also work in the detection of criminals and for wrecks or accidents where instant help is imperative.

WILL VISIT GETTYSBURG AND ANTIETAM BATTLEFIELDS

Hon. W. T. Davies of Towanda, Will Be Member of Party.

Hon. O. D. Kinney of Athens, Colonel Charles H. Graves, United States Minister to Sweden, Colonel Joseph H. Horton of Buffalo, and Ex-Lieutenant Governor Davies of Towanda, left Tuesday morning for an automobile trip which promises to be one of many pleasures.

The party will go to Gettysburg where they will visit the famous battlefield, one of America's most historic spots. During the battle of Gettysburg, Colonel Horton was in command of the famous 141st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, recruited principally in Bradford county. Mr. Kinney and Mr. Graves were also participants in that bloody engagement.

From Gettysburg the party will go visit the famous Antietam battlefield, where Colonel Graves and Mr. Kinney also fought with the Union forces.

The trip will be made in Mr. Kinney's fine touring car, and the party has set no time limit for the pilgrimage.

LEHIGH BRAKEMAN RECEIVED TERRIBLE INJURIES SATURDAY

Fell From Pilot of Engine Near Vosburg Tunnell.

Charles Thomas, a well known Lehigh Valley brakeman of Sayre, son of Conductor Albert Thomas was seriously injured while in the pursuance of his duties near the tower at Carney below Mehoopany at about 4 o'clock Saturday morning.

His left leg was crushed so badly as to necessitate amputation at the Packer hospital one hip was fractured and he sustained laceration of scalp and internal injuries.

Thomas, who was brakeman on a fast westbound freight J. B. 3, after leaving Vosburg tunnel and while the train was traveling at a rapid rate of speed, climbed out on the pilot of the engine to get the train orders from the operator at Carney's tower. The supposition is that in reaching for the orders he leaned out too far and losing his balance fell under the wheels. The train crew had reached Laceyville before the brakeman was found to be missing. Subsequently the operator at Carney's tower found Thomas lying along the track. An engine of an eastbound train which was in the siding was cut off and the injured man taken to Laceyville where he was put abroad passenger train No. 15 and taken to Sayre where he was hastened to the Packer hospital.

For a time his life was despaired of, but a message from the hospital last evening was to the effect that he was resting comfortably, and his recovery is looked for.

ARBITRATORS FOUND IN FAVOR OF THE LEHIGH.

Decided Against Otis Ssoemaker in Damage Case.

W. E. Lane, U. M. Fell and J. W. Hurst, arbitrators in the case of Otis Shoemaker vs. the Lehigh Valley Railroad on Saturday found in favor of the Lehigh.

Mr. Shoemaker brought suit for damages against the Lehigh for injuries sustained in falling from a freight car on Oct. 4, 1909. He alleged that his fall was due to a defective brake which gave way, allowing him to fall.

The case was called on Friday, and was completed Saturday, the arbitrators finding in favor of the Lehigh. William Maxwell represented the Lehigh, while Hoyt & Schrier were attorneys for the plaintiff.

Election Echoes.

Charges of election fraud in the Lackawanna township districts of Lackawanna county will in all probability result in criminal proceedings. This is the result of the contest for the nomination for state representative in the Sixth district. An arrests will undoubtedly be made this week and that when the move was made those behind the prosecution would have the goods on those charged.

Uniforms For Officers.

Passengers on the next excursion on the Lehigh Valley Railroad will be more than surprised when they see the special officers of the company attired in new uniforms. They were purchased for the officers by the company who will in the future have several uniformed men when each excursion instead of plainclothes men as formerly. The uniforms are of blue cloth and are resplendent with gold braid and brass buttons.

CHAPTER XX.

THE LAST STAND.

SOON after 5 o'clock a man in the topmost window of the tower called down that the forces in the hills were moving in a compact body toward the ridges below the southern gates.

One hundred picked men were to be left inside the castle gates with Vos Engo, prepared to meet any flank movement that might be attempted. Three hundred mounted men were selected to make the dash down Castle avenue straight into the camp of the sharpshooters. It was the purpose of the house guards to wage a fierce and noisy conflict off the avenue and then retire to the castle as abruptly as they left it, to be ready for Marlanx should he decide to make a final desperate effort to seize their stronghold.

The dash of the 300 through the gates and down the avenue was the most spectacular experience in Truxton's life. He was up with Quinnox and General Braze, galloping well in front of the yelling troops. These mounted carbineers, riding as Bedouins, swept like thunder down the street, whirled into the broad, open arena beyond the duke's palace and were upon the surprised ruffians before they were fully awake to the situation.

They came tumbling out of barns and sheds, clutching their rifles in nerveless hands, aghast in the face of absolute destruction. The enemy, craven at the outset, threw down their guns and tried to escape through the alleys and side streets at the end of the common. Firing all the time, the attacking force rode them down as if they were so many dogs.

After ten or fifteen minutes of this desultory carnage it was reported that a large force of men were entering the avenue from Regengetz circus. Quinnox sent his chargers toward this great horde of foot soldiers, but they did not falter, as he had expected. On they swept, 2,000 or 3,000 of them. At their head rode five or six officers. The foremost was Count Marlanx.

Quinnox saw now that the Iron Count was determined to storm the gates and gave the command to retreat. Waving their rifles and shouting defiance over their shoulders, the dragoons drew up, wheeled and galloped toward the gates.

Scarcely were the massive portals closed and the great steel bars dropped into place by the men who attended them when a low, dull explosion shook the earth as if by volcanic force. Then came the crashing of timbers, the cracking of masonry, the whirring of a thousand missiles through the air. Before the very eyes of the stunned, bewildered defenders, dismounting near the parade ground, the huge gates and pillars fell to the ground.

The gates had been dynamited.

Then it was that Truxton King remembered. Marlanx's sappers had been quietly at work for days drilling from the common to the gates. It was a strange coincidence that Marlanx should have chosen this day for his culminating assault on the castle. The skirmish at daybreak had hurried his arrangements no doubt, but none the less were his plans complete. The explosives had been laid during the night. The fuses reached to the mouth of the tunnel across the common. As he swept up the avenue at the head of his command, hawk faced and with glittering eyes, he snarled the command that put fire to the fuses.

A moment later his vanguard streamed through the aperture and faced the deadly fire from the driveway.

At last they began to advance across the grassy meadow. When one man fell under the fire of the guardsmen another rushed into his place. Three times the indomitable Graustarkians drove them back and as often did Marlanx drag them up again, exalted by the example he set.

"Gad, he is a soldier!" cried Truxton. "Hello! There's my friend Brutus. He's no coward either. Here's a try for you, Brutus."

He dropped to his knee and took deliberate aim at the frenzied henchman. The discovery that there were three bullets in Brutus' breast when he was picked up long afterward did not affect the young man's contention that his was the one that had found the heart.

The fall of Brutus urged the Iron Count to greater fury. His horse had been shot from under him. He was on his feet, calling to his men to follow him as he moved toward the standborn row of green and red. Bullets hissed about his ears, but he gave no heed to them.

The commander of the guard gave the command to fall back slowly toward the castle.

Firing at every step, they crossed the parade ground and then made a quick dash for the shelter of the long balconies. Marlanx, down in the parade ground, was fairly pushing his men into the jaws of death.

Truxton King's chance to pay his debt to Vos Engo came after one of the fiercest, most determined charges. The young count had been fighting desperately for some time. His weakness seemed to have disappeared. As the foe fell back in the face of desperate resistance Vos Engo sprang down the steps and rushed after them, calling others to join him in the attempt to complete the rout. Near the edge of the terrace he stopped. His leg gave way under him, and he fell to the ground. Truxton saw him fall.

He leaped over the low balustrade, dropping his hot rifle, and dashed across the terrace to his rival's assistance. A hundred men shot at him.

"It's my turn!" shouted the American. "I'll square it up if I can. Then we're even!"

He seized the wounded man in his strong arms, threw him over his shoulder and staggered toward the steps.

"Release me, curse you!" shrieked Vos Engo, striking his rescuer in the face with his fist.

"I'm saving you for another day," said King as he dropped behind the balustrade with his burden safe.

There were other witnesses to Truxton's rash act. In a lofty window of the north wing crouched a white faced girl and a grim old man. The latter held a rifle in his tense though feeble old hands. Now and then the old man would sight his rifle and fire. The girl who crouched beside him was there to designate a certain figure in the ever changing mass of humanity on the bloody parade ground. Her clear eyes sought for and found Marlanx; her unwavering finger pointed him out to the old marksman.

She saw Vos Engo fall. Then a tall, well known figure sprang into view, dashing toward her wounded lover. Her heart stopped beating. With her hands to her temples she leaned far over the window ledge and screamed—screamed words that would have filled Truxton King with an endless joy could he have heard them above the rattle of the rifles.

The corner of the building had shut out the picture. It was impossible for her to know that the man and his burden had reached the balcony in safety. Even now they might be lying on the terrace, riddled by bullets.

The old man roused her from the stupor of dread. He called her name. Dully she responded. Standing bolt upright in the window, she sought out the figure of Marlanx and pointed rigidly.

"Ah," groaned the old man, "they will not be driven back this time! They will not be denied. It is the last charge! God, how they come! Our men will be annihilated in—Where is he? Now! Ah, I see! Yes, that is he! He is near enough now. I cannot miss him!"

Marlanx was leading his men up to the terrace.

At the top of the terrace the Iron Count suddenly stopped. His long body stiffened and then crumpled like a reed. A score of heavy feet trampled on the fallen leader, but he did not feel the impact.

A bullet from the north wing had crashed into his brain.

"At last!" shrieked the old man at the window. "Come, Miss Tullis; my work is done."

"He is dead, your grace?" in low, awed tones.

"Yes, my dear," said the Duke of Perse, a smile of relief on his face. "Come, let me escort you to the prince. You have been most courageous."

A group of terrified women were huddled in the far corner of a nearby room. The Duke of Perse held open the door for Loraine Tullis, but she did not enter. When he turned to call she was halfway down the top flight of stairs, racing through the powder smoke toward the landing below.

At every step she was screaming in the very agony of gladness:

"Stand firm! Hold them! Help is coming! Help is coming!"

A last look through the window at the end of the hall had revealed to her the most glorious of visions.

Red and green troops were pouring through the dismantled gateway, their horses surging over the ugly ground rifts and debris as if possessed of the fabled wings.

Her brother was out there, and all was well. She was crying the joyous news from the head of the grand stairway when Truxton King caught sight of her.

He was powder stained and grimy. There was blood on his face and shirt front.

"You are shot!" she cried, clutching the post at the bend in the stairs. "Truxton! Truxton!"

"Not even scratched!" he shouted as he reached her side. "It's not my"— He stopped short even as he held out his arms to clasp her to his breast. "It's some one else's blood," he finished resolutely. She swayed toward him, and he caught her in his arms.

"I love you—oh, I love you, Truxton!" she cried over and over again. He was faint with joy. His kisses spoke the adoration he would have cried out to her if emotion had not clogged his throat.

"Eric," she whispered at last, drawing back in his arms and looking up into his eyes with a great pity in her own. "Is he—is he dead, Truxton?"

"No," he said gently; "badly hurt, but"—

"He will not die? Thank God. Truxton. He is a brave—oh, a very brave man!"

Leaderless between the deadly fires, the mercenaries gave up the fight after a brief stand at the terrace.

The prince reigned again.
